'Fair Shake' Is Promise Given To Allied Reds

POW's Who Turned 'Progressive' Offered Sympathy by Clark

MUNSAN (AP)—Gen Mark Clark today promised a fair shake for thousands of war prisoners—Allied and Communist-held—who have refused to return home.

The U N Far East commander pledged any Americans who have refused repatriation 'our sympathy for the hardships they have suffered, our understanding of the pressures to which they have been subjected. . '

Clark offered any Americans the "legal rights and protection ' guaranteed by U S. laws. A U N Command spokesman said being a ' progressive' —Red sympathizer— is not considered a crime in the United States

Nearly 20 Americans

The Communists say they hold about 30 South Koreans and more than 20 non-Koreans—presumably most of these Americans—who refuse repatriation

Clark said in his statement that if he could communicate with the men held by the Reds, ' I would remind them of the American tradition of freedom—the freedom for which they fought before their capture '

Clark also vowed to protect the "freedom of choice of nearly 23 - 000 Chinese and north Koreans who renounced communism while in Allied captivity

As the statement was released 1 000 fiery anti-Red Chinese war prisoners being handed over by the U N to Indian guards near Panmunjom ripped off their identification tags and refused to give their names to the Indians

The prisoners spotted Communist observers outside the barbed wire and unleashed a hail of stones None of the Reds was injured

The five nation repatriation commission, which will decide the fate of all prisoners who refuse to go back to their home countries called a special conference

An Indian spokesman said the commission would consider refusing further Allied deliveries of prisoners without their identification cards

The prisoners apparently feared Red interviewers might discover

Weary Newsman Tells Reds' Court in Prague He Was a 'Spy' for U.S.

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

(Copyright 1953 by The Associated Press)

On Monday, July 2, 1951, I stood up in court in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and said I had spied for the United States Embassy.

I was not a spy. I was an Associated Press foreign correspondent, and the three men accused with me were my Czech employes.

And I was not testifying as I should have testified in a court in my own country — out of my own heart, aiming to tell "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

I was testifying as the Communist secret police wanted me to testify. I was following, in substance and sometimes word for word, a script they had written for me and rehearsed me in.

This script, prepared during my 70 days' interrogation and completed perhaps 10 days before I took the witness stand, was called a protocol It consisted of questions for court and prosecutor to ask me, and answers for me to give them

That morning, we four went on trial before the Senate of the State Court at Pankrac Prison, in southeast Prague

We were brought there after breakfast from the prison where we had been interrogated. (I did not find out till after the trial where that prison was)

WE MADE THE trip in a green van, each locked in a blind compartment with guards crowding the aisle Other guards with submachineguns watched in a courtyard as we were led into Pankrac Prison

We passed through a subterranean corridor and upstairs to a row of separate cells I waited in my cell smoking nervously and guarded by a tall uniformed policeman with a big pistol

Then we crossed a hall and entered the high-ceilinged courtroom by a side door We must have looked quite decent for supposed criminals Before our journey we had been shaved and had changed from prison uniform into street clothes (I wore the dark blue suit and brown bow tie I had on when arrested April 23) But each of us had his guard

I scanned the courtroom for familiar faces I saw none of my friends (Only after my release this year did I learn that Vice Consul Richard G Johnson and Private Secretary Mary Horak of the U S Embassy were in the back of the room)

I recognized two Czechoslovak press officers—Dr Rudolf Popper of the Ministry of Information and Bedrich Runge of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs They sat stolidly in the press section

I noticed there, also, two Communist corresponden s I had seen in my 10 months of freedom in Prague—an effeminate Irishman from the party-line Telepress agency and a Negro girl whose affiliation I did not know They were grinning broadly at my plight.

UPSTAIRS AND downstairs the house was packed Specially chosen factory workers cooperative farmers and government clerks got passes to such trials

We four sat down separated by our guards, on a bench facing the bar I had earphones to catch simultaneous English interpretation of all Czech testimony, the interpreters were in booths near the bar And near me sat another interpreter to serve as intermediary between me and the court when I should testify

Now the judges entered, four men and one woman in black robes, and the trial began

STATE PROSECUTOR Josef Urvalek, also in black read the indictment It called The Associated Press a spy agency serving the United States in a 'war against the Soviet camp of peace " It said all AP bureau chiefs in Prague since 1948 had been spies It charged my employes and me specifically with espionage

Presiding Judge Jaroslav Novak then called me to stand in the horseshoe - shaped witness stall He referred to the indictment and asked, ' Do you feel guilty? '

' Yes I do " I said Seventy days of questioning had taught me that was the right answer

The judge had a bulky document before him It was my protocol And now I got the first question in it The prosecutor asked me to identify a small card introduced into evidence

I said it was my 1944 off-duty pass from the Japanese language school of the Army Military Intelligence Service at Ft Snelling, Minn

After a few unprogrammed questions on my birthplace and such I explained in answer to protocol questions that I had gone from Ft Snelling to a similar school at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor and, after a year s study there had got out of the Army

(I studied language, not espionage and I was not in the Military Intelligence Service but on the detached enlisted men's list)

I said that Lt Col George L Atwood, U S military attache in Prague had been in the Ann Arbor school while I was there but that we had not met I testified that I got acquainted with him in Prague and had "espionage meetings" with him

Hornsby Fired As Manager of Cincy Redlegs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Rogers Hornsby today was removed as manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs

Gabe Paul, general manager of the club said Buster Mills first base coach, will handle the team the remainder of the season

Paul, in a statement said Hornsby asked him Tuesday about his status for 1954

' He was told a decision would be made very shortly and because of his request he would be advised as soon as a decision was reached Paul said

' We have advised Mr Hornsby today that a change in managers will be made Because of the fact that Mr Hornsby has been notified he will not manage the Redlegs in 1954 it is advisable that the change take place immediately.

Paul said he was not ready to announce the new manager at this time

World Peace Up to Russia, Dulles States

Must Demonstrate Intent Before Tension Can Ease, U.N. Told

UNITED NATIONS, N Y (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles declared today ' Occasions are now imminent which permit, indeed require, the Soviet leaders to show more authentically their present intentions "

In a policy declaration before the U N General Assembly Dulles ranged over major world problems laying down terms on which tension might be eased.

"The United States is quite prepared 'to explore ways to end the present tension ' he said ' But what the United States does cannot achieve the required goal unless there is an equivalent response

Then Dulles said

' If the Soviet leaders are honest, they must recognize that, if there is to be a new world climate, they must contribute more to it than they have yet contributed "

He accused the Soviet Union specifically of ' dilatory tactics ' in Korea and of sponsoring rebel forces in Indochina, as well as failure to cooperate on the German and Austrian questions.

The secretary of state laid down the following points which he said would "go far to end the present tension

1. Policies which will permit Korea to be united and free

2 A peaceful solution of the Indochinese problem

3 Unity of Germany and a free Austria

4 Policies which will enable Russia s neighbors to enjoy national independence

5. Policies which will end the dedication of the Soviet Communist party to the violent overthrow of independent governments.

Then Dulles observed

"Governments which exert themselves without reserve to the creation of ever more powerful methods of mass destruction which tolerate no delays and spare no expense in these matters and which at the same time are dilatory, evasive or negative toward curing the situations which could bring these destructive forces into play cannot but stand morally condemned.

He said there never had been a time when the need for harmony was more urgent

' Never were the consequences of disharmony more menacing, ' he continued ' The fact of tension cannot be ignored That would be dangerously unrealistic. Also, the causes of that tension will have to be explored. Otherwise there can be no cure But, in whatever it does here the United States will seek to avoid any word or deed which might needlessly aggravate the present state of dangerous tension '

Warning that scientists have found the means to wipe life off the planet, Dulles observed

' The destructive power inherent in matter must be controlled by the idealism of man s spirit and the wisdom of his mind They alone stand between us and a lifeless planet '

Until the world develops ' the spirit and the institutions that will enable man to dominate matter, Dulles said, nations are forced to develop ' Community measures to deter aggression ' With such organizations as NATO obviously in

Government Warehouse Is 25% Burned

Building Used by Air Force Depot To House Services' Equipment

A three-hour blaze at the government-owned Wilkins Air Force Base warehouse on the Williamsport Road, swept through approximately 25 per cent of the building, causing an estimated $100,000 damage last night

Fire department companies from the Marion Engineer Depot and the Marion Training School in addition to a Marion Township fire truck fought the fire for 3 hours and 17 minutes Approximately 100 feet of the warehouse and its contents of clothing for the armed forces was a total loss The warehouse stretches in length about 300-400 feet

Cause Unknown

Cause of the blaze has not been determined and further investigation will be handled by the Department of Defense, Col John Phelan, commander of the Depot, said

First alarm of the fire sounded at the Marion Engineer Depot fire department at 6 19 p m The Depot department has direct fire alarm system for all government-owned plants in the area and has coverage of fires at any of the plants Depot officials notified the city fire department which sent out the Marion Township truck, housed at the Mark St station, and a company from the Marion Training School arrived to assist.

The Wilkins warehouse is located northwest of the Municipal Airport and northeast of the Marion Training School

Last Checks at 4 45

Last check of the warehouse had been made at 4 45 p m by plant guards

After the three Depot fire department companies were sent to the fire scene, a city fire truck from the Central Station was sent to the Depot to stand by in case of an emergency there

The Engineer Depot companies were supplemented by off-duty personnel, and City Fire Chief O A. Sifritt drove to the scene. An estimated 1 000 000 gallons of water were poured on the fire within a two and a half-hour period

Stored in the warehouse were shoes, shoe soles and heels, helmets and other articles of clothing which are used by the armed forces

Flames Spread

The flames swept rapidly along the wooden building, but were partially halted by a fire wall which runs the width of the warehouse The wall is made of fire-resistant masonry materials and made to retard the progress of fire Materials stored in the warehouse less than six feet away from the flames were not damaged, firemen said Some of the equipment which was not touched by fire added to the loss estimate with water damage

Barkley May Run

Republicans Face Fight To Hold Senate Control

CHICAGO (AP)—Republicans arriving in Chicago for regional party conferences discovered today they may have to contend with former Vice President Alben W Barkley in a critical 1954 contest involving control of the Senate

Democrats leaving town after a two day rally here said there is little doubt that Barkley a veteran of 30 years service in Congress before he was vice president for four years will be a candidate for the Senate in Kentucky next year

Cooper Faces Battle

This means that Sen John Sherman Cooper Republican looked upon with high favor at the White House, will face the stiffest kind of opposition next year in a state President Eisenhower lost by 700 votes in 1952 while Cooper was being elected by a comfortable margin

To the incoming Republicans, who are aiming their forthcoming conferences here primarily at retaining control of Congress it was obviously gloomy news that Barkley probably will run again for the Senate

The Kentuckian who served several terms in the house was Democratic leader of the Senate and a frequent national convention keynoter before he became The Veep ' in 1948

Ferguson Seat Shaky

Cooper's Kentucky seat is one of the two now held by GOP members in which Republican strategists are doubtful of the outcome The other is the seat held by Sen Ferguson (R-Mich) scheduled as a fall in keynoter at the combination meeting of party women from 18 states and 21 GOP state chairmen

Control of the Senate may be determined by a single race next year since the Republicans and Democrats now have 47 members each with one independent and one

Optimistic Babies Will Live

Siamese Twins Severed By Louisiana Surgeons

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Surgeons separated the spinal columns of Louisiana s Siamese twins after operating an hour and one-half today and were optimistic that the rest of the separation would be successful.

Doctors at New Orleans Foundation Hospital believe they will establish a new chapter in medical history if both girls survive

A staff surgeon said never before have both twins survived such an operation

Surgeons began separating the lower intestinal tract that the girls have in common after dividing a fused vertebrae that also joined them

The operation was proceeding according to plan a staff surgeon reported, with no unexpected developments

The 8-week-old girls are the daughters of Mayor and Mrs Ashton J Mouton of Lafayette

Hospital spokesmen said yesterday the girls, Carolyn Anne and Catherine Anne, are "bright alert and normal in every respect except for the connection "

The girls were born in the La-

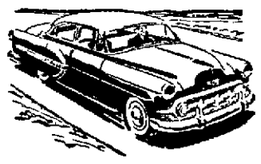
This demonstration was worth many hundreds of dollars to me!

I thought only a higher-priced car would suit me. But then I found out how much more Chevrolet offered for how much less!



You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel

Take this Bel Air model First thing you'll notice is the quality of the interior. Rich-looking appointments. Roomy seats with foam rubber cushions. Turn the key to start the engine and you're ready to go.

You can see all around

You look out and down through a wide, curved, one-piece windshield. The panoramic rear window and big side windows provide a clear view in all directions.

You get more power on less gas

That's because Chevrolet's two great valve-in-head engines are high-compression engines. In Powerglide* models, you get the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field — the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" Gearshift models offer the advanced 108-h.p "Thrift-King" engine.

Biggest brakes for smoother, easier stops

An easy nudge on the pedal brings smooth, positive response —right now! Chevrolet's improved brakes are the largest in the low-price field.

It's heavier for better roadability

You're in for a pleasant surprise at the smooth, steady, big-car ride of this new Chevrolet. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than the other low-priced cars.

You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide*

A lot finer performance on a lot less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide automatic transmission. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.

And it's the lowest-priced line

A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers just about everything you could want Yet it's the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.

*Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

Let us demonstrate all the advantages of buying a Chevrolet now!

Shadow and Substance

In the first day's sparring within the new session of the U.S. General Assembly, the United States scored twice — not as an individual nation but as leader of a team of nations lined up to advance a common purpose.

A Soviet bloc proposal to oust Nationalist China in favor of the Communist Chinese regime was defeated. It was agreed that this is not the time to consider the admission of Communist China to the U.N. — not until there has been a settlement of the Korea issue.

Besides gaining this lever to use at the peace conference, the United States offset a previous rebuke to India by backing Madam Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit's successful candidacy for the presidency of the General Assembly. She is the sister of India's Prime Minister Nehru.

In the old days, diplomacy was carried on at long range. The essence of diplomacy then as now was to substitute the shadow of talk and gesture for the substance of war and bloodshed — to keep clashes of international interest from leading to armed conflict.

If the United Nations has done nothing else, it has closed the range for diplomacy, which now is conducted by massed diplomats under one roof on Manhattan Island.

To Mark Constitution Day

It has been 166 years since the 39 men who signed the Constitution performed that historic deed on Sept. 17, 1787.

They were full of doubts. George Washington, president of the Constitutional Convention, which had been in session most of the summer, was full of doubts, too.

Of the 65 delegates qualified to attend the convention, only 55 had shown up at all and of these only 39 had been willing to put their signatures on the result, some with strong reservations. But Washington sent the proposed constitution to Congress anyway. A few days later, Congress sent it to the legislautres of the states.

After a slow process of ratification, the Constitution was declared in effect on March 4, 1789. It contained seven articles. The 10 original amendments, known as the Bill of Rights, were declared in force at the close of 1791.

The movement to make Constitution Day as one of the most significant historic dates has been gathering momentum. In Ohio its observance has been urged in a joint resolution of the General Assembly adopted last April.

Here We Go Again

Indian summer . . .

Someone said it today, and someone will say it tomorrow.

It means iridescent air that ruffles the shining leaves on sky-reaching poplars and clean, crisp evenings that look as if nature had decided to frame a picture of perfection to be displayed in the gallery of eternity.

It means fields of corn with pendulant ears jutting at awkward angles from yellowing stalks, wisps of smoke clinging to warm chimneys, a laundered look in towns soon to become grimy with soot and a resurgence of vitality after a summer of ennui.

It means much that is precious to that side of man where his finer sensibilities are worn under a thin covering of sophistication. Indian summer is a tender season, meaning many things.

But by all that's holy and worth raving about Indian summer does not mean a nice day or a nice series of days in September. It means the interval of mild weather that occurs after nature has turned spiteful and thrown a snowstorm at cringing earthlings. It occurs in October, almost never in September.

November Suckers

A handful of New York City Democrats voting in their party's primary this week made the decisions which will bind the rest of the party's voters in the election next November.

Since the decisions also will help to determine the November choices of Republican voters and those affiliated with other parties it might be said that a few more than half a million New York Democrats have cast the die for more than two and a half million New Yorkers who will go to the polls this November.

These are the November suckers, the voters who go through the motions of making a free selection between candidates previously selected by someone else.

It is meaningless to point out that voters are handcuffed in the primary, where someone else has decided who will seek nomination. The fact is that the primary never has been given a trial in the party system which is the backbone of government in the United States.

No one knows what would happen if office-seekers and their managers had to deal with as few as 50 per cent of the registered voters when it is time to determine whose names will appear on party tickets in the election.

It has never happened.

Trumanism Survives

By David Lawrence

Democratic Rally Is Good for GOP

Just about the time the Republicans are beginning to fall apart, the Democrats under the leadership of former President Truman come to their rescue and coalesce them.

The Democratic party's rally in Chicago is as good a piece of publicity for the Republicans as they could themselves have devised.

It reminds the country that Mr. Truman is still the boss of the Democratic party and that the only platform the Democrats have is to restore Trumanism to the national government.

No mistakes are acknowledged—everything is to be the same as it was under the New Deal and Fair Deal.

Trumanism was interpreted in the election of last November as meaning a pseudo-liberalism that got caught in a "Washington mess"—special privileges for the tax-fixer, failure to prosecute Communists inside the government, and a profligate spending program that threatened the solvency of the nation's finances.

Since the election, the facts have come out that FBI information concerning a devious Communist conspiracy inside the government had been consistently ignored.

Despite warning of Soviet spy rings by the FBI in 1945, the Truman administration for three years failed to act and then did do only when congressional committees forced the issue.

Last autumn's election was won by the Republicans because of a negative trend — a trend against the Truman administration on the issues of communism, corruption and Korea.

This negative trend will not stop in 1954 but will go on to 1956, as happened when the antagonism to the Hoover administration persisted through the '30's.

The Democrats used to remind the country about Hooverism on every occasion. The Republican tacticians are asleep at the switch and some of the Eisenhower aides are still angling for the applause of so-called "Liberals."

The latter voted for Stevenson last time and will vote Democratic next time. It is more important to hold the confidence of those who did vote for Eisenhower.

But notwithstanding the Republican failure to keep the country reminded of the errors of the Truman regime, such reminders are being stimulated by the Democratic rallies.

There are many persons who, like the writer, prefer the Democratic party to the Republican party based on history and party principle.

But the present-day Democratic leadership ignores the traditional Democrats and wants to turn the party over to a group of labor-union radicals and so-called "Liberals" who are coercionists at heart and would impose restrictions on the liberty of the individual which the true doctrine of the Democratic party would never sanction.

There is a chance for leadership in America by a major political party which understands the basic and fundamental principles that have built up the industrial and agricultural and financial strength of this country.

It wasn't built up by "giveway" programs which robbed Peter to pay Paul or which sapped the vitality of the individual by prohibitive tax rates.

Today the system of private capitalism has been weakened by the Democratic party. State socialism is the ultimate aim.

Sometimes, as one reviews the aspirations of the "public ownership" advocates inside the Democratic party, the phrases of their speeches resemble the anti-capitalist propaganda of the Communists in Europe — where the state is extolled above everything else.

The Republican party is far from cohesive. It, too, is composed of some groups which have an affinity for giving away taxpayers' money and calling it "social welfare."

The Democrats have a strong faction opposed to this, and so have the Republicans. They could some day unite in one party to oppose the confiscationists —those who, under the guise of the "public interest," would have an all-powerful government compete with or supplant private enterprises.

President Eisenhower has a chance to keep in his party many of the Democrats in the South and North who believe in true liberalism.

Certainly the Democrats' Chicago rally doesn't show that the party leaders are doing anything to persuade traditional Democrats to revoke their 1952 support of the Republican ticket.

The jargon at Chicago is merely reminiscent of the misdeeds of an administration that was repudiated at the polls.

Lindbergh Was Different

By TRUMAN TWILL

Next February, Charles A. Lindbergh will be 52 years old. A few months ago when the story of his famous flight from New York to Paris was running in the Saturday Evening Post, I was made to feel twice that old one day.

"What was such a big thing about flying to Paris?" inquired a teen-ager. "People do it all the time."

In May, 1927, people did not fly to Paris all the time. A few people had been thinking about doing it as a stunt, including Lindbergh. He had the tenacity and skill to go ahead and do it, alone. That was a big thing—THE big thing, looking back at it. To go ahead and do it.

The reviewers are calling his story, now published as a book, a remarkable record of not only a historic flight but a historic personality. There are some things about Lindbergh some of us have been wanting to say for a long time.

He never got along well with certain persons. Some of these knew it all when he was figuring how to get across some 3,600 miles of the earth's vast distances without falling into the Atlantic Ocean. He had to go against their grain to do it because they said he had to have a two-engine plane and he knew he'd be lucky to carry enough gas for one.

He was right, and they were wrong. They hated him for it.

Then fame hit him, though that was not what he was after when he flew alone to Paris in one of the loneliest adventures of modern times. But some people who sneered that he must have been after fame, nothing else, because that is what they would have been after by golly and they were the prototype of the human race etc. etc.

They were wrong. Lindbergh wanted to prove that aviation was the transportation of the future. He did prove it. That's why people now fly nonstop across the ocean every day. It's why aviation, which was something for stuntmen in 1927 now is a basic means of travel only 50 years after the Wrights learned to get their flying contraption off the ground.

Many people hated Lindbergh because he was not like them. They had hated his father for being a nonconformist. They persecuted his father and they persecuted him when he refused to do what they expected him to do.

They expected him to report back to them, when he went to Germany before World War II, that the Germans had a shoddy air force. When he reported back that Goering and his cronies were equipped to clobber the whey out of the French and British, they hated him for being a Nazi sympathizer.

That smear was carried all the way to the White House, which is a dirty passage of contemporary history that is conveniently glossed over in most accounts.

Charles A. Lindbergh will be 52 next February. When the sprouts wonder what he did that was such a big thing there's a lot to remember. Some of it had to do with flying, and it was dramatic and important. The rest of it had to do with refusing to bootlick contemporaries who thought they had all the answers and reveled in heaving rocks at the nonconformist from Minnesota who couldn't help but make them look like chumps because that is what they were—chumps.

Cooking Hazard

BEMIDJI, Minn. (AP)—A 71-year-old poet, Edward Gilfillan, Long Beach, Calif., started a canoe trip from the source to the mouth of the Mississippi River.

When he gave up, after five days, he wanted it clearly understood that it wasn't the paddling that made him change his mind.

"It wasn't the river that beat me," he explained. "I just could not stand my own cooking."

The Great Delivery Failure

By Raymond Moley

In the Durkin affair there seems to have been a delivery shortage or failure all around.

Martin Durkin, selected as secretary of labor for reasons which do not seem clear to anyone including himself, was unable to deliver a single labor boss to the support of the Republican Party.

The implacable, bitter partisanship of the leading labor leaders has never slackened. This was never so apparent as on Labor Day, before the Durkin resignation was made known.

Durkin couldn't have delivered those leaders even if he had tried, which apparently he did not do. For he was never an outstanding labor leader himself. His influence went only slightly beyond his own plumbers' union.

Durkin, in fact, did not even deliver himself. His move from the status of union leader to that of public servant was qualified, incomplete, and tentative.

When his nomination was under consideration by a Senate committee, Sen. Taft made an effort to determine exactly what status he still proposed to occupy in his union and whether he would represent labor or the public interest in the new government.

Durkin himself was not very clear. It was never made plain whether he was on leave or had resigned from his union. It is now clear that his resignation from the union presidency was far from absolute.

After the death of Taft and after the gaff over the undelivered presidential message, it was revealed by Durkin that he was going to the AFL convention this month as a delegate of the union.

In other words, by accepting that role he indicated a total lack of conception of what a Cabinet officer should be.

He sought to represent both a minority group and the American public—an effort which could not help but result in a failure to represent either properly.

But this great delivery failure went further. Apparently, the eager beavers on the White House staff could not deliver the President. For after making some sort of promise to Durkin, they prepared a message for the President and foolishly allowed it to get out.

The White House suddenly developed a red face. It would seem that for such an embarrassment to the President a few more resignations should be in order—this time by members of the White House staff.

Finally, it was a baseless assumption by everybody concerned that the President could deliver Congress. Certainly there has been no essential change in congressional sentiment since the Taft-Hartley Act was passed over Truman's veto in 1947.

Ever since, Congress has resisted every effort to emasculate the law. The amendments described in the phony Presidential draft were wholly unacceptable to Republican leadership.

Conservative Democrats would have been free, as the Republicans were not, to vote flatly against any such presidential recommendations.

So the President comes to the end of another costly lesson in politics and statesmanship in the field of domestic policy. Never, as he faces the next step, will he feel the loss of Taft so keenly.

Perhaps, however, he will be reminded by someone that Taft might have advised him to take a leaf from the Taft book of 1950. He should appeal to labor itself, over the heads of the labor bosses. For labor leaders are not "labor." They should be the servants, not the masters, of their members.

A Splendid Privilege

By MARK DANA

With the school season now under way, the lethargic heat of the summer waned, the quickening impulses of the fall at hand, and various organizations which paradoxically hibernated during the warm months now resuming their seasonal schedules, it might be proper to call anew to the attention of parents the splendid opportunities they have in becoming active in Parent-Teacher associations.

This one of few nationwide organizations which is thoroughly localized, with every school unit a separate entity. Despite the fact that the PTA does have a national setup, with headquarters and national officers, and on a national scale operates to improve many conditions pertinent to schools, every unit focuses its concerns on a particular school. That minimizes waste motion.

It is not uncommon for a parent to be glad when school time arrives, so that for a few hours a day children will not be under foot and assuredly will be safe in some school room. Parents of many children tending to be unruly or even wayward somehow expect teachers to "raise" their children for them, teaching the youngsters obedience, good manners, proper habits, etc., and curing them of faults.

Teachers do a valiant job of this. Yet often it is the mother or father who has been unable—or unwilling—to rear a child properly, who becomes aroused when a teacher tries to do the job, with little authority and with a great many pupils to share this solicitous and reformative attention.

It is a rare teacher who is not eager to meet parents of his or her charges, to become well acquainted, to cooperate fully with parents in the tremendous job of bringing children up to be law-abiding and well-behaved. Parent-Teacher associations help to provide such coordination and mutual understanding.

The PTA's function for the benefit of parents and children, certainly not for the benefit of teachers. Parents who become active in these groups can learn in detail what schools and teachers are trying hard to achieve for youngsters —and it is a lot. The parent who ignores the PTA idea is passing up a proper obligation to school as well as to self.

Migration Problem

MELBOURNE (AP) — An Australian Labor leader says Japan will submit claims for migration to New Guinea at the International Labor Organization Asian regional conference in Tokyo in September.

Albert E. Monk, president of the Australian Council of Trade Unions, made the statement in an address to the United Nations Association. He recently returned from an I.L.O. conference in Geneva.

Monk said Asian countries, except Japan, had changed their postwar clamour for migration because they realized that the limited number of migrants Australia could absorb would not solve their population problems.

Teen Driver Control

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut is considering a sterner policy towards law-breaking teeage drivers. Too many of them, says Motor Vehicles Commissioner Charles F. Kelly, are being arrested for reckless driving. Usually, their licenses are suspended for 15 days.

Under consideration, said Kelley, is a proposal that they be ordered off the road for one to three years.

Said Kelley: "The teenagers we are after are the absolutely undisciplined and irresponsible, and are fresh and disrespectful."

Hot Coffee and Cold Wars

Coffee is having the slug put on it. It is being portrayed as a spiller of top secrets in Washington. Great influence is being ascribed to the little brown bean from Brazil.

According to testimony brought out by senatorial probers, you can get coffee with a choice of sugar and cream or just secret information. As a friend of coffee we are disturbed.

We have been consuming it for years, never suspecting that it might transform us into an all-around big mouth, dropping confidential data all over the joint. We still are a loyal friend of the coffee bean, glad to champion it against its Washington influence-peddling betrayers.

It is our notion that whatever evil comes from one or two cups of coffee comes from the way it is made in many restaurants and coffee bars these days. It is too weak to hold a secret.

Our belief is that the quality of a cup of coffee dished out in those Washington coffee shops, drugstores and quick lunches is so watery and devoid of any real resemblance to coffee that it makes the consumers sore and disgruntled; they become gabby in a spirit of bitterness.

We have been handed cups of coffee that filled us only with a desire to annihilate the proprietor, the waitress and the chef. Had we possessed any secret for successful aggression against them we would have spilled it at once.

(It is even possible, we hold, that the weak, watery, vapid, spineless, tasteless, characterless coffee served in most spots is to blame for the spirit of aggression sweeping the world.)

The current grade of restaurant coffee, coupled with the utter carelessness of making toast, the low content of cream in cream and the inability of the average coffee-house cook to get the eggs right could be to blame for the state of belligerency so many millions are in today.

We are for following up the testimony of a Washington contact man that he could get a lot of top secret data on one cup of coffee at any coffee bar around the Pentagon, and that if he stuck around for two cups, he could get enough secret data to last him for weeks.

We think the fellow who really needs senatorial attention is the fellow who makes the coffee these days. This "Let's have another cup of coffee and let's have another round of top secrets" motif has got to stop.

Frank Erickson, the bookie, is to have two weeks of freedom between prison terms . . . If he plays the ponies he should have hunches on "Lost Weekend," "Night Off," "Gotta Go," "Chased Again" and "Whiskoff." . . . "France To Enforce Income Tax Laws" — headline . . . . Wanna bet?

We saw Bob Anderson's "Tea and Sympathy," with Deborah Kerr at the out-of-town opening and predict it will be a New York sensation. . . . An unpleasant subject is written with such taste and played with such delicacy that it gripped first-nighters as few dramas have in years. . . . .A particularly shocking final curtain is played with such restraint by the star and John Kerr that it is a thing of beauty . . . .That recent staff celebration thrown in the U. N. General Assembly building with Danny Kaye, Ezio Pinza and other top entertainers among the fun makers was quite a success. . . . .No: a diplomat, when asked if he would like another cocktail, said "Abstention," no Russian attached the musicians as tools of Wall Street, Mr. Pinza escaped charges of being a capitalistic warmonger and no lady refused a dance on the ground that it was a violation of procedural rules.

ASHLEY — Westfield Methodist Church will observe its centennial with a three-day celebration on Sunday, Sept. 27, at 8 p.m. A dramatization of the church history will be presented. On Thursday, Oct. 1, "Old Timers Night" will be held with supper at 5 p.m. At 8 p.m. numbers will be given that were given years ago, some by the same people and some by others in costume. Skits of events that occurred, will be given. There will also be a talk by the Rev. E. Burns Martin of Hammond, Ind.

On Sunday, Oct. 4, church services will be conducted by the Rev. Charles W. Stephens of Port Jefferson and his sister, Mrs. Laura Bell Mathers of Plain City. At 12.30 the picnic dinner and at 2:30 p.m. the program will feature an address by the Rev. S. E. LaFollette, superintendent of the Mansfield district.

The Westfield Methodist Church was organized in 1822 by the Rev Jacob Bacon as circuit rider, with six known members, Jacob Conklin, Benjamin Olds and Daniel Peak and their wives. Tradition has it that services were held there as far back as 1805. It is known definitely that services were held there in 1814 with the formal organization of the society in 1822.

From 1822 to the winter of 1843, the society met in homes and in the school house. In the winter of 1843-'44, a revival service under the preaching the Rev. Thomas Grissell was held and the response was so great they moved from the school house to a ballroom.

A church building was erected just north of the present building and served the congregation until 1853, when it was outgrown and the present building, erected at a cost of $2,600.

He thinks it's because his agents have been knocking off so many stills lately. They destroyed five in the last 30 days.

Forry, and two vocal duets were given by Miss Donna Wymer and Miss Rosemary Sidenstricker, with Miss Mary Lou Kruskamp at the piano. Prayer was offered by the teacher, Rev. Willim Wright.

The program and refreshments were in chrge of a committee headed by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, Mrs. Mary Winters and Clyde Smith.

Kiwanis Club Sets Sale of Apples for National Kids' Day

For the fourth consecutive year, members of the Marion Kiwanis Club will observe National Kids Day with the sale of apples on downtown intersections next Friday and Saturday.

All proceeds from the sale of the apples will be used in the city and county of Marion for helping under-privileged children obtain such needed things as tonsilectomies, dental work and medical services.

Last year's apple sales netted the club $1,500. Of this amount, $50 was used in renovating and redecorating the small boys' dormitory at the Children's Home.

In charge of this year's apple sale is Ray Reidenbaugh, chairman of the projects and promotions committee. Lester L. Dickey is president of the club.

FINED ON ASSAULT CHARGE

A Marion man was fined $15 and costs on an assault and battery charge in Municipal Court Wednesday morning. He was George Allen Cripple, 20, of 454 Grant St. Cripple was arrested at 10:11 a.m. the same day on a warrant filed by Dick Wilson. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

Pastor and Family Guests at Dinner

To honor the pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, Rev. Walter C. Eyster, and his family, a dinner was given Tuesday night by the Married People's Class in the church dining room, 125 attending. Stuart Jones was chef, assisted by William McGee, John Beers, S. W. Kuhner, Gordon Gallup, Fred Weber, Floyd Wilhelm, and George Oborn. Table decorations were flowers, and a floral centerpiece marked the table of the honored guests. Mrs. George Oborn and Mrs. Floyd Wilhelm were in charge of the table arrangements.

Seated with the Eysters were Rev. Harold F. Kellogg, superintendent of the Lima District, and Mrs. Kellogg, W. Earl Thomas, teacher of the class, and Mrs. Thomas, class president, and Miss Margaret Huffman, and with Rev. and Mrs. Eyster were their sons, John, James, and Jerry. Other guests of the class were Mr. and Mrs. William Veness and Mrs. Jennie Ewing.

Invocation was by the pastor, and following dinner Mr. Jones led group singing. Mrs. Earl Hale was pianist. Present also was Mr. Hale, a former teacher of the class, who is serving as pastor of the Asbury Methodist Church on Lee St. Rev. Eyster spoke in appreciation of the "gracious gesture" to the class in welcoming the new parsonage family members, with introduction of each one and of the Kelloggs. Rev. Kellogg gave greetings. Miss Huffman reported on last Sunday's Family Reunion church service attended by 670 worshipers, and gave a general invitation to the next Sunday service which will emphasize attendance of young people and their families. Parents were invited to attend with the young people the youth retreat set for Sunday afternoon at Camp Owens near Marion.

Colored slide pictures taken on his trip to Europe with a Youth Caravan team were shown by Rev. Eyster, and as worship emphasis, a painting of Christ and His disciples was shown, followed by a scene of Niagara Falls with its application to the thought of all people being a part of the "streams of life." Mr. Gallup then showed a picture on atomic energy.

NONE INJURED IN CRASH

No one was injured in a two-car accident on U. S. Route 30-S, one and seven-tenths miles east of the Marion-Morrow County line, which was investigated at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday by state patrolmen. A car driven by Charles Andrews, 20, of 244 Bellevue Ave., cut in too soon after passing another car driven by Irene Smith, 44, of near Upper Sandusky. The right front of the Andrews car and the left front of the Smith car had minor damage. Andrews was arrested for improper passing and was cited to appear in Municipal Court, Sept. 26.

PASSES TEST HANDS DOWN. Elden C. Freeman, a salesman, accepted a challenge to walk a straight line after Los Angeles police stopped his auto to give him a sobriety test. He peeled off his coat and walked the line on his hands. That convinced the officers. They let him go.

Gala Premiere Held in N.Y.

Cinemascope Hollywood Reply to TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood came to Broadway last night in a bold 75 million dollar bid against television. It was quite an evening.

The film industry unveiled one of its newest processes—Cinemascope—in a star-studded world premiere of "The Robe."

It was as glamorous as the opening of the Metropolitan Opera season, and added several more million candlepower of glitter to the Great White Way. It was a black tie and mink jacket event, and the diamonds on the lady guests were outshone only by giant searchlights which stabbed a cloudy Manhattan sky.

The 6,500 invited guests—who had to push their way through some 6,000 uninvited spectators jammed outside the Roxy Theater—included Mayor Vincent Impellitteri, Gen. James Van Fleet, and a local restaurant owner called Toots Shor.

Also invited were churchmen, entertainment celebritics such as Milton Berle (and him in television!) and Shirley Booth and Mary Martin. So were a few scattered millionaires such as Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. And diplomats such as Sir Percy Spender, Australian ambassador. And more movie moguls than you could sell a script to—at the moment.

It was a show within a show—a real life drama surrounded a filmed one.

Few autograph collectors noticed a small shy elderly Frenchman with a beard who smiled dazedly as his wife gave him a congratulatory peck on the cheek. This was Prof. Henri Chretien, who invented Cinemascope.

Nor did they pay much attention to a big breezy fellow near the professor. This was Spyros Skouras, president of Twentieth Century-Fox, who once shined shoes as a boy immigrant from Greece and now leads a group of film giants who hope Cinemascope will prove the movie industry's best answer to television.

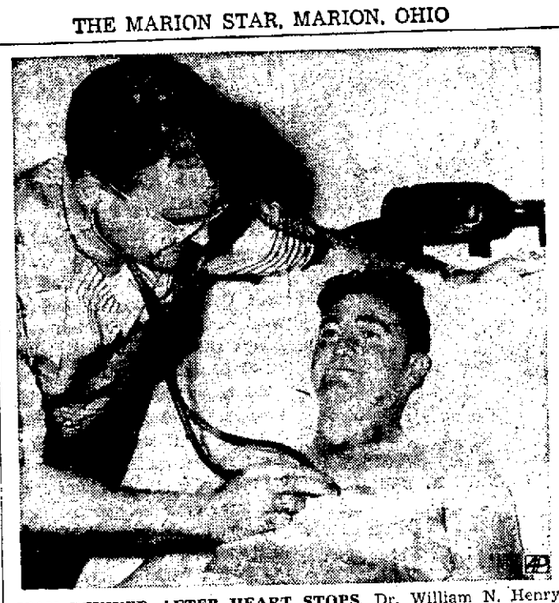
Some scores of serious-faced gentlemen in tuxes also were passed over by the autograph fans. These were the bankers reported to have raised between 75 and 100 million dollars to finance Cinemascope on a national scale.

What is Cinemascope. And what did they see?

Well, the traditional movie screen is roughly the shape of a newspaper page. The screen for the debut of Cinemascope is wider and curved—as if you opened a newspaper in the middle and looked at a picture spread across both pages. The curved screen and special wide-angle lenses invented by the French professor are supposed to give the illusion of depth.

The picture, based on Lloyd Douglas' best-selling novel, is a Biblical drama of the conversion of the Roman officer in charge of the crucification of Christ. It was filmed in technicolor, and it cost 4½ million.

Many in the audience appeared uncertain whether the debut of Cinemascope proved anything. They appeared more stunned by the sound effects, the brilliant color, and the vast images on the huge screen than they were moved emotionally by the scenes portrayed. It was a great spectacle, but Cinemascope — which occasionally blurred the images—couldn't make it into a great movie.



MAN REVIVED AFTER HEART STOPS. Dr. William N. Henry checks heart of smiling patient, Paul W. Carmody, 26, whom he said "died" on the operating table and was revived 4 minutes and 45 seconds later. He enjoyed the ice cream and cake the DAV finally served.

County Dairy Cows Post High Averages

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike Commission says it is turning "voluminous" documents over to the Elyria Planning Commission.

Gen. Robert S. Beightler, executive director of the turnpike commission, took the opportunity yesterday to throw another punch in the running battle between the city and the commission. Elyria is fighting routing of the Northern Ohio Turnpike through a section of the city.

Beightler said Elyria's planning board asked for the documents but has no right to them. He is furnishing them "as a courtesy," he said.

The turnpike chief said the documents show how Elyria's master plan "may be accommodated" to the turnpike.

The commission gave Elyria copies of plans and contracts Sept. 1, Beightler said.

Russell Says Air Cutbacks Hurt Defenses

Senator Says U.S. Has More A-Bombs Than Planes or Pilots

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell (D-Ga) said today the United States has more atom bombs than it has planes and pilots to deliver them against any agressor that might attack this country.

Russell, top Democratic senator on the Senate Armed Services Committee and the Senate-House Atomic Energy committee, make the remark in expressing concern about Eisenhowers administration cuts in Air Force funds.

Well-Guarded Secret

How many A-bombs this country has stockpiled is a carefully guarded secret.

The Georgian, interviewed about the impact on U. S. defense requirements of Russia's announcement she has developed the H-bomb, said the best deterrent to aggression is the ability to strike back. He said he felt, therefore, that the retaliatory power of long-range strategic bombers must be the cornerstone of America's defense.

Despite any defense network that may be thrown around this country—with radar warning systems, fighter - intercepter planes and guided missiles — some enemy bombers are bound to break through in a determined attack, Russell said.

However, he also said more intercepter planes, as well as an improved radar network, are needed. He put more stress on planes than guided missiles but said he was not at liberty to expound on his reasons.

Still Opposes Cut

At the last session of Congress Russell opposed the Eisenhower administration's five billion dollar cut in funds for the Air Force. He repeated today he felt too deep a cut had been made. He also noted the Defense Department had ordered a further cutback in plane orders since Congress adjourned.

Russell said the objective of achieving a balanced budget must be kept, but he took the position it was better for the government to go into the red than to risk an inadequate defense.

In a separate interview, Sen. Bridges (R-NH) told reporters Russia's progress on the H-bomb should bring a thorough reappraisal of U. S. defense planning and spending. But he said this would necessarily blight his often expressed hope for a tax cut by Congress next year.

Bridges heads the Senate Appropriations Committee, which handles spending bills, and is the senior Republican member of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

He said he hopes to have a talk with President Eisenhower in Boston Monday—when the President arrives to address a Republican meeting there—and that the tax-defense financing problems probably would be discussed then.

Twins

fayette Sanitarium July 22.

The only organ the twins had in common was the lower intestinal tract, spokesmen said. They were joined at the fourth sacral vertebrae, which is fused.

The lower intestinal tract was bypassed in a preliminary operation by an opening in the abdominal wall, spokesmen said. Plastic surgery will complete each twin's lower intestinal tract.

The twins, under observation since their birth, have been found normal in mental development, general health and growth. They apparently have separate functioning nervous systems and independent spinal cords, except a junction in the dural sac, the covering of the spinal cord at the lower end.

Far East Job Is Just Begun, Wiley Asserts

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), declaring "our job in the Far East has just begun," called today for a mutual defense arrangement with that area as soon as the nations of Southeast Asia are ready for it.

"We should use our great influence to help develop the concept of collective security in the Far East," said Wiley, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Important as Europe

Security in the Far East is every whit as important to world peace as security in Western Europe or Latin America . . . What we need to do now — as soon as the countries of the Far East are ready to assume the obligations involved —is to move ahead with a third great pact for the Far East."

In speaking of a "third" pact, Wiley referred to the North Atlantic and the Rio treaties, in which this country pledged its mutual security with the nations of Western Europe and this hemisphere, respectively.

The senator, in a speech prepared for the National Foundry Assn., a trade group, also declared:

1. Russia is seeking to divide the Western Allies, and Americans should not help her by magnifying differences between, for example, the United States and Britain. "The fact that we disagree with respect to a particular policy, he said, "is not nearly so important as the fact that we continue to agree on our common goals and work together to achieve them."

Totalitarian Indigestion

2. The Soviet world "is in the throes of an acute attack of totalitarian indigestion" whose "symptoms approach those of ptomaine poisoning." Wiley said that, if the free world does all it can to encourage this development, "the internal pains will continue to the point where the Soviet Union will be forced to disgorge her satellites and eventually revolution will break out within the mother country itself."

3. More information about atomic and hydrogen bomb development should be made public because, he said, "if the leaders in the Kremlin had the facts at their disposal, they would hesitate a long time before taking action that might provoke the United States to take retaliatory measures . . ."

Restricted Gas Heating Under Fire by Toledo

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Toledo gas expert says Ohio's formula for installing new gas furnaces should be abandoned until Ohioans can "catch up" with other states served by the Columbia Gas System.

Joseph Nathanson, special gas consultant for Toledo, said Ohio has about 50,000 gas furnaces less than other Columbia-served states.

The current formula is for one heating unit to be installed in Ohio for everyone installed out of the state by Columbia and its subsidiaries.

Nathanson testified yesterday at a hearing before the state utilities commission to determine whether or not gas restrictions should be lightened.

their names and homes and take reprisals against relatives.

Meanwhile, Brig. Gen. A. L. Hamblen, chief of the U. N. C. group which will talk with reluctant Allied prisoners, said the command feels both Allied and Red captives "already have made their choice."

Must Act Himself

The general told a news conference at Munsan:

"If the prisoner does nothing, it is assumed that he wants to stay under the control of the country which now holds him."

He said a prisoner, who decides to return must make some "overt act" such as an oral or written application, to be considered for repatriation.

Hamblen told correspondents that his explainers are "not going to say anything to the POWs that we cannot back up. We are not going to give wild promises of immunity. But we will assume all men innocent unless proven guilty."

They will be told their rights as American citizens, Hamblen said.

Hamblen said being a "progressive"—a POW who sided with the Reds—is not considered a crime in the United States.

The 90-day explanation period is set to begin about Sept. 25. Allied and Communist representatives will be allowed to talk with their former soldiers in an effort to ease their fears and persuade them to return home.

HEADS OHIO KIWANIS

CINCINNATI (AP)—Willis H. Edmund of Akron is the new governor of the Ohio district of Kiwanis International. He was elected here yesterday at the close of the organization's 30th convention. Russell Bailey of Youngstown was elected treasurer.

Air Force Will Cut Production Of Jet Engines

Half-Billion Slash Planned; Not Needed, Defense Secretary Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force plans to cancel contracts for possibly 6,000 spare engines costing perhaps a half-billion dollars because, it says, jet engines are sturdier than at first thought.

Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of the Air Force Talbott told a news conference yesterday the cancellations will "not affect the production of one single plane."

Spares and Extras

They said the engines, all spares or extras and mostly for jets, are no longer needed for two chief reasons:

1. Jet engines are much more durable than had been expected—the result of "accumulated know-how" in operation, maintenance and improved design.

2. Attrition rates have fallen off—that is, fewer accidents and, of course, no losses in combat since the truce in Korea.

However, Talbott said the Korean truce was not a direct factor.

Talbott said production of the affected engines will start tapering off immediately and will come to a halt by next spring. He said the number of cancelled engines might run as high as 6,000 with savings between 400 and 500 million dollars.

Run Longer

Commenting on the durability of jet engines, Talbott said some of them run as much as 1,000 hours without overhaul, whereas 100 hours had originally been contemplated. But he added:

"There was no mistake in the original jet engine orders. At the time they were made, we had no experience factors on which to base requirements."

Wilson and Talbott insisted the cancellations were not dictated by the five-billion-dollar cutback in Air Force funds voted by Congress last session. But they said the decision was in line with administration policy of saving money wherever possible without endangering national security.

Not Related

Wilson said the engine cancellations have nothing to do with the aircraft reductions announced two weeks ago, when 965 planes were cut from procurement plans at a saving of 750 million dollars.

Talbott said the engine cutback will not affect the J53, which is the newest, costliest and most powerful jet engine made for the Air Force. Principally affected, he said, are the J47, used in B47 bombers; the J33 and J35, used in such planes as the F80 and F84; the J65, used in the newer F84 and the B57, and the R3350 and R2800 piston engines.

The cuts will affect secondary products rather than the four companies—Allison, General Eelectric Pratt & Whitney, and Wright Aeronautical—which make a business of developing and manufacturing airplane engines.

Source Affected

These secondary sources are the Packard, Studebaker, Nash, Buick and Chevrolet Automobile Companies.

Talbott said the Ford Air Force facility in Chicago will "move forward with Pratt & Whitney of East Hartford, Conn., by changing from production of the R4360 piston engine to become a second source for the J57.

Similarly, he said, the Dodge plant in Chicago will be used in part for J57 production.

Talbott said the Air Force will place increased emphasis on development and production of turbo-prop engines — jet engines harnessed to propellers—particularly for transport and tanker airplanes.

In another defense procurement announcement, the Navy said yesterday its third super-carrier will be built by a private shipyard on the East Coast. This dashed the hopes of West Coast congressmen who had long sought the 212-million-dollar job for their area.

Informer Agrees To Disclose Brink's Robbers, Reneges

BOSTON (AP)—An informer agreed to tell a grand jury the names of the gunmen who robbed Brink's, Inc., of $1,219,000 on Jan. 17, 1950, then reneged on his promise at the last minute, published reports said today.

The informer, who was not identified, apparently was scared off his previously agreed course by the gunshot slaying in West Warwick, R. I., of Carlton M. O'Brien, a former rumrunner who was a Brink's suspect, these accounts said.

Officially, there was no comment from investigators on the reports but the Boston Herald said a person high in the investigation admitted a broken promise "upset the Brink's applecart."

In return for the $180,000 reward, the newspaper said, "the informer had agreed to go before a grand jury and name the masked gunmen and tell of the division of the loot, it was reported

George H. Taylor of Wilson, N. C., will become education director at Central Christian Church Oct. 1. The church official board at a meeting Monday night extended a call to the young man to fill the position in which he will assist the pastor, Rev. Ashley Booth, and carry on many young people's activities.

Mr. Taylor, 25, has held similar positions at Durant, Okla., and at Goldsboro, N. C. He is the son of a Disciples of Christ minister, Rev. J. A. Taylor, and was graduated from Atlantic Christian College at Wilson with a Bachelor of Arts Degree.

Detroit Parade Winds Up 1953 Glidden Tour

DETROIT (AP)—A gala parade in downtown Detroit today climaxes the 1953 Glidden Tour in which more than 300 ancient autos puffed and snorted over 331 laborious miles.

Some of the cars still were straggling and a few never finished the trip, victims of their age and the mechanical shortcomings of their era.

The tour started Tuesday in Cleveland and swung through Columbus before coming here.

County To Call 9 In October Draft

Marion County's call in the October induction call is nine men.

The Ohio director of selective service issued a call for 1,066 men in October, the smallest induction call this year. Previous low was 1,224 for September and high mark for the year was 2,291 in May.

The October induction call ranges from a minimum of one man from each of 12 counties to a high of 224 from Cuyahoga County.

Calls from area counties are: Crawford, 6; Delaware, 8; Hardin, 3; Morrow, 5; Union, 2; and Wyandot, 1.

Hornsby

ent when Paul made the announcement.

The Redlegs are in sixth place in the National League race, the same position in which they finished both in 1951 and 1952.

There had been rumors all was not well between the Redleg front office and Hornsby and there also were reports he was not on the best of terms with some of the players. He was dismissed as manager of the St. Louis Browns early last year.

General Manager Paul, in his statement, said Hornsby and he "are parting on the friendliest of terms, and I do want to say that, contrary to many reports, there never has been one minute of friction between us."

"He has cooperated to the best of his ability," Paul said.

The general manager said the next manager will be one who has had managerial experience.

Hornsby, found sitting in the lobby of a hotel, said he has no plans for the immediate future.

"I think I did a good job," he told a reporter. "I am satisfied. My conscience don't hurt me. I developed a couple of good ball players here.

"I wish the best of luck to the organization and to the players."

Hornsby apparently was referring to outfielders Gus Bell and Jim Greengrass when he said he had developed a couple of good players. They have been powerhouse hitters for the team and have done well defensively.

Hornsby said he planned to stay in baseall. He will go to Chicago tomorrow, he said, and then attend the World Series.

GE Expects No Quick Layoffs at Evendale

CINCINNATI (AP) — The General Electric Co., expects no immediate affect at its big jet engine plant in suburan Evendale from a government cutback of jet engine production which was announced yesterday.

GE employes approximately 10,000 persons at its Evendale plant.

A company statement said "whatever labor adjustments might be required, if any, will be accounted for through normal employe turnover."

CAB Conducts Albany Plane Crash Inquiry

(Picture on Page 1)

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Federal investigators start poring over the twisted ruins of an American Airlines Convair today to find out what caused it to clip two radio towers and slam to earth, killing all 28 persons aboard.

The twin-engined craft burst into a holocaust of flames yesterday morning as it crashed within a few feet of a trailer park, scorching the bodies of the 25 passengers and three crew members.

Joseph Fluett, regional chief investigator for the Civil Aeronautics Board, called a meeting this morning to organize "an investigation of structural parts and the scene itself "that will take about two weeks. Airline officials and state police also are investigating.

Some witnesses reported the plane seemed to encounter engine trouble as it circled Albany airport after its landing had been delayed by a heavy ground fog.

American Airlines said its meteorologist found, just before the crash, that the fog had begun to clear and that the ceiling over the airport was 500 feet. Minutes later the big 40 - passenger Convair struck two in a row of three 365-foot towers at Albany station WPTR'S transmitter.

The plane shattered on the ground a half-mile from the radio towers and 3½ miles from the airport control tower. One witness said there was fog at the ground level in the trailer park.

mind, the secretary of state continued:

"Soviet leaders have complained of these arrangements. But they should know, and probably they do know, that community arrangements are the least likely to be aggressive. Military force which is within a single nation can be used offensively at the dictation of one government alone, sometimes of one man alone."

Dulles made these declarations on major issues:

Korea — The armistice is an inclusive test of Communist will to peace. The Korean political conference "will afford a better test." The United States is eager to bring home its troops, but "we are forced to doubt that the Communist side really wants to comply with the armistice and face up to the problems of withdrawing their forces from Korea and creating a united independent Korea."

Indochina — "The Communist-dominated armies in Indochina have no shadow of a claim to be regarded as the champion of a independence movement. If the Soviet Bloc countries outside of Indochina persist in promoting war in Indochina, they cannot be surprised if their conduct is taken as proof that they adhere to the design to extend their rule by methods of violence."

Germany — "The division of Germany cannot be perpetuated without grave risks. . . . The three Western Allies have again sought at a meeting of foreign ministers to accomplish the unification of Germany. So far, our proposals have met with no response."

Austria — "The three Western occupying powers have offered to include an Austrian peace treaty at a metting of foreign ministers which has been proposed. So far that proposal, also, has met with no response."

Eastern Europe — "The United States does not want to see Russia encircled by hostile peoples. But we foresee that unless Soviet policies are changed they will, in their actual operations, create precisely such surrounding animosity and hostility as Soviet policy understandably wants to avoid."

Disarmament — "The United States has already put forward a series of proposals which have attracted widespread support. On these we are not inflexible; except that we do insist that any proposals must meet one fundamental test—there must be effective safeguards to ensure compliance of all nations and to give adequate warning of possible evasions and violations."

Backed by Allies

Dulles went before the Assembly backed by America's 15 U.N. Allies in Korea on a decision to stand firm against Chinese Communist demands that the Korean peace conference be turned into a round-table.

The 16 Allies agreed at a closed meeting yesterday to insist on the Assembly decision last month that the parley include only two teams of negotiators—the U.N. belligerents vs. the Communists and those nations willing to line up with them —and no so-called neutrals, as proposed by Moscow and Peiping.

In London, there was some talk the British government might try to bring the U.N. and the Chinese Reds together, perhaps through a committee of interested powers or a mediator, in an effort to reconcile the opposing views on the conference. Prime Minister Churchill's Cabinet reportedly had decided, however, to join the United States in opposing any reopening of the Assembly debate on the Korean conference.

Senate Labor Leader Scores Durkin Stand

No Agreement Was Ever Made on Law Changes, Smith Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) said today he was "amazed" at the assertion by former Secretary of Labor Martin Durkin that the Eisenhower administration broke an agreement on Taft-Hartley law revision.

"I know perfectly well there wasn't any agreement to break," said Smith, chairman of the Senate Labor Committee who has just returned from a Canadian vacation.

Smith said prolonged talks looking toward agreement on a revision bill continued right up to the time Congress adjourned Aug. 3. Representatives of the Senate and House Labor Committees and the White House took part, he said.

Not Fully Resolved

But, he added in an interview, management groups were not fully resolved, and it was agreed the the divergent views of labor and parleys would be resumed this fall with an eye to introduction of legislation in January.

Durkin did not contend there had been full agreement among all parties on proposed revisions to the labor relations law—19 in number. He said at St. Louis Tuesday he had discussed them with President Eisenhower and the President "agreed with me that the 19 amendments should not be withheld, that they should be submitted to Congress."

A few days later, Durkin said, a White House staff member notified him the administration would not be able to go along with the proposed amendments.

When he quit the cabinet a week ago, Durkin gave as his reason what he called White House failure to abide by an agreement on the proposals.

No Such Thing

Smith said there never was any agreement. He said the 19 proposed amendments, word of which leaked out a few days before Congress adjourned, were never anything but a working draft. It was his impression, he added, that this particular draft came from Durkin's department because it contained many changes sought by unions.

Chrysler Will Get $50 Million Defense Order

DETROIT (AP) — The Army says Chrysler Corp. soon will get a new 50 million dollar defense contract.

It is for M51 tank recovery vehicles to be built at the Detroit Arsenal in nearby Center Line, where Chrysler is scheduled to complete an M47 tank-making contract around Nov. 1.

No estimate was given of the number of tank recovery vehicles to be built.

vacancy. The Democrats will outnumber the Republicans if Gov. Frank Lausche of Ohio, a Democrat, names a member of his party to succeed the late Sen. Taft (R-Ohio).

Recognizing this situation, Victor A. Johnston, director of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee said in an interview he believes Cooper will give a good account of himself against any Democratic opponent.

Fills Unexpired Term

Cooper's seat is before the electorate again because he was elected to fill out the unexpired term of the late Democratic Sen. Chapman.

Ferguson, who is being threatened with opposition from Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, was chosen as a substitute speaker when GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall developed a virus infection, preventing his appearance at the meetings here.

Two Minor Accidents Investigated by Police

Two minor, non-injury traffic accidents were reported today by city police.

Slight damage resulted to vehicles in an accident Wednesday at 10:40 a.m. at Oak and Owens Sts. A car driven by Mary C. Akers, 27 of 1104 Herbert Ave. was attempting a right turn into an alley and was hit by a truck driven by William Clayton Smith, 26, of 232 S. Vine St, traveling north on Oak St.

A car driven by Tanker Fousianis, 72, of 535 Summit St. was slightly damaged in an accident Wednesday at 11:36 a.m. in an alley between N. Main and N. Prospect Sts.

Fousianis' car struck a parked truck owned by the Ripley Motor Sales in the alley off N. Main St. It was not damaged.

Wyandot County Sheriff's office to stop an automobile bearing California license plates and carrying four men.

Stop at Upper

The men had stopped at a service station in Upper Sandusky, made a purchase, and gave the attendant a 10-dollar bill, who informed them he had to give them one-dollar bills in change as he did not have any five-dollar bills.

In the resulting confusion, one of the men was reported to have pulled out another dollar bill from his pocket, put it with the nine given him by the attendant, and picked up the original 10-dollar bill, saying "You might need the change, just give me a twenty."

The four men were apprehended near Brush Ridge about 12:50 p.m. by a sheriff's cruiser and a state patrol car sent to the area. They were met at the city limits by a Marion police car.

Men Identified

Taken to the Marion Police Department, the men were questioned by Wyandot County Sheriff Dean McAllistwer and the station attendant who identified them as the ones who had made the purchase and a "profit" of over nine dollars.

The men were identified as Clyde Smith, 35, of Charleston, W. Va., Essie Ingram of Cincinnati, George Corum of Detroit, Mich., and George Williams, 51, also of Detroit.

Corum was released in Upper Sandusky, but the remaining three were still held this morning in Wyandot County pending investigation.

Democrats Choose Issues Early for '54 Campaign

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Politics, like a good mystery story, is something in which you have to wait till the end to learn how it turns out.

So what happened at the Democats' two-day Chicago meeting this week should be taken with that in mind. They wound up the meeting well pleased with themselves.

There was no explosion; they slammed the Republicans; and they expressed bright hope for their encounters with the Republicans in the 1954 congressional elections.

While this was a kind of warm-up for the 1954 campaign, it was also a bit like blowing up their ego and their optimism with a home-made bicycle pump. It's too soon for them to have any real reason for optimism.

Between them, at the Democratic rally, former President Truman and Adlai Stevenson bundled together a number of complaints they threw at the Republicans after their first eight months in office.

The complaints covered a lot of territory: That the Eisenhower administration had cut defenses too much; that it cut public housing; that by raising interest rates the administration had made it harder to build private housing; that it has no program for helping farmers get better prices; that it hadn't amended the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act; that it hadn't widened social security.

All those, at this time, might seem like issues which the Democrats can now go out and use to beat on the Republicans' heads. But another Democrat, in a statement two weeks before the Chicago rally, put his finger on the reality.

This was Texas' Sen. Lyndon Johnson, Democratic leader in the Senate. On Aug. 31 he said the 1954 session of Congress will be the yardstick by which the voters in 1954 can judge Republican success or failure.

While Stevenson at Chicago said the policy of the Eisenhower administration seemed to be "government by postponement" — putting off till 1954 what it did not want to tackle this year —Johnson looked at the Republican Congress two ways.

He had some criticism for what it didn't do, and praise for what it did.

But — by the time the 1954 elections roll around, what Congress did or didn't do in 1953 and 1954 may be dwarfed, as a campaign issue, by other events which can't be predicted at all now.

For one thing, the outcome of the Korean Peace Conference — supposed to start about the end of next month—may be an important factor in the 1954 elections, particularly if the shooting should start again.

If this country slid into a depression by election time, that would be a major issue, probably bigger than anything else.

Cuts in taxes—for corporations and individuals—is scheduled and the administration, particularly since 1954 is an election year, seems pretty sure to let them go into effect.

But the various tax reductions listed for 1954 will cost the government billions of dollars at a time when the administration is most anxious to keep up its revenue to fill a 1952 campaign promise to balance the budget.

How it can do this, without pushing through some other kind of tax, perhaps a national sales tax, will be one of the master economic accomplishments of 1954, if it can be done.

But if there is a sales tax the Democrats already have said it would be a primary issue in 1954.

Add to this the United States' dealings and successes, or failures, with Russia, plus problems which can't be foreseen now, and you wind up with a bit of mystery about what the 1954 campaign issues will really be.

Marionites Plan to Attend Columbus Moose Convention

The four officers and about 12 other members of the Marion Moose Lodge will attend the three day convention of the Ohio lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose to be held Sept. 25–27 in Columbus.

Highlight of the convention will be the official welcoming of the newly elected supreme governor of the Ohio lodge, Judge Willard Campbell of Cambridge. He will be honored on Sunday, Sept. 27.

The officers traveling to Columbus for the convention from Marion are John W. Maag, governor; Melvin Lehner, past governor; H. L. Deitsch, treasurer; and J. Patrick McGary, secretary.

About a dozen other members have indicated their attention of attending the affair, but the list of names is not yet complete or final.

The convention will draw Moose members from all over the state to the capitol. Along with the welcome for Judge Campbell on Sept. 27, will be the induction into the lodge of 500 candidates for membership.

Officials of the Moose organization are scheduled to come from several other states to participate in this year's convention.

These Days

By George Sokolsky

In 1492 the Jews were expelled from Spain. Many of them went to Holland; some found themselves on the ships that took Columbus to America. Colonies of them eventually appeared in Surinam, Pernambuco and other Central and South American colonies.

SOKOLSKY

In 1654, a ship, the "St Charles," sailed into New York harbor. On it were a number of Jewish families, mostly of Spanish and Portuguese origin, who were sailing to Holland but were blown into New York by a storm.

-:-

THEY DECIDED that it was God's will that they should settle in that city. Negotiating with Peter Stuyvesant, they were permitted to settle, to have a synagogue and a burial place of their own, provided that they would always take care of their own destitute. They have never broken that contract.

A year ago, Captain Joshua Goldberg, chief Jewish chaplain of the American military services, was in Spain. He found that a few Jews were in the capital, Madrid, and that they had improvised a synagogue, altogether inadequately equipped.

Chaplain Goldberg preached in that synagogue in the uniform of an American naval officer. It was the first time in 461 years that an ordained rabbi had preached at a service in Madrid.

THE MOROCCAN Jewish students, before whom Chaplain Goldberg also preached, implored him to send a rabbi to Madrid. The president of the Jewish community there, who had been received by Franco, Daniel F. Barouhh, also expressed a desire for a rabbi.

This year, this was accomplished. On the Jewish holy days, Rosh Hashannah (New York) and Yom Kippur (the Day of Atonement), for the first time since 1492, the Jewish community of Madrid had a Torah (a scroll of the law) beautifully garbed in silks, as in the Jewish custom, Hebrew prayer books, prayer shawls, skull caps—and a rabbi.

The rabbi, David A. Jessurun Cardozo, comes from an old Spanish family that had settled in Holland. He was educated in Amsterdam and London.

He came to the United States and has held rabbinical posts in New York and Philadelphia. He preaches not only in English and Hebrew but also in Spanish and is therefore eminently fitted for this post.

THUS THE CIRCLE of history is closed. Jewish culture reached heights in Spain, prior to 1492, unequalled anywhere else in Europe.

Maimonides, the greatest Jewish philosopher, Jehuda Halevy, the greatest Jewish poet, and Ibn Gabirol, whose poems have become part of the Jewish liturgy, were Spaniards.

Then came Ferdinand and Isabella, the Wars with the Moors, and bad times. It is in bad times that persecutions often occur.

In Spain, a monolithic nationalism produced a violent reaction against any people who were in any manner different from the norm of Spanish life and culture. After the Jews were expelled, Spain was closed to them for more than four centuries.

Yet it is a curious fact that during the Hitler persecution of the Jews, Franco opened Spain to Jewish refugees from the Nazi. Many found their way into that land that had so long rejected them. They were protected there from Nazi espionage.

The Spanish and Portuguese asylums for Jews were particularly important during World War II when most of Western Europe was overrun by Hitler's armies.

IN 1949, Franco granted Spanish nationality to several hundred Jews of Spanish origin who had been released from Nazi concentration camps.

In 1945, he had granted the Jewish community of Madrid and Barcelona full rights of worship according to their tradition. In 1947, he had authorized the introduction of Jewish education in certain public schools which Jewish children attend.

This being the 300th anniversary of the settlement of the Jews in New York, I am informed that Temple Emanuel of New York, the largest Jewish congregation in the United States, has defrayed the costs of sending Rabbi Cardozo to Spain to reinstitute Jewish worship at Madrid for the high holy days this year.

Even to those who are not Jews, these events must spell a new day in Spain.

It is particularly significant that the arrangements were made through a rabbi who is an officer of the United States Navy and that the rabbi sent to Spain comes from the United States.

It is a symbol of a renewal of religious tolerance in a part of the world from which it has so long been absent.

WIFE DISAPPEARS. Police Chief Charles Knecht of Geneva, Switzerland, announced that Mrs. Donald McLean, American-born wife of a British diplomat widely believed a fugitive behind the Iron Curtain, disappeared with her three children from Geneva. Mrs. McLean is shown leaving London for France in July, 1952, with two of her children Fergus, 8 (foreground), and Donald, 6. Third child is a daughter, two years old, born three weeks after her husband disappeared.

Parcel Post Rates Increase On Oct. 1

Changes in rates of parcel post matter, (fourth class mail), which will go into effect Oct 1, will increase the cost of mailing packages of one pound or less three to six cents depending on the zone.

The measure was approved in June and is designed to produce increased revenue to cover the cost of handling such parcels. Smallest increase is for local delivery which was raised from 15 to 18 cents for the first pound.

The six cent increase will be effective for the first pound in the second and third zones. Five cent increases will be the rule for the first pound in the other zones.

Rates on poundage beyond the first pound have been increased also for each zone. The new rate varies from 1.45 cents for each additional pound in the local zone to 18.05 cents for each additional pound in the eighth zone.

On packages measuring more than 84 inches, but under 100 inches in length and girth, the minimum charge shall be for a 10 pound package in the zone to which it is being mailed.

The local post office has a complete table of the new rates.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A state bureau of inspection report yesterday returned a finding of $2,802 against Mayor Mitchell Osborn of Piketon in Pike County for failure to turn over to the state one half of highway patrol fines collected from May 10, 1949 to March 17, 1953.

The report stated Osborn paid the finding plus $150 interest on May 7, 1953.

The report found also an "illegal expenditure" of $2,886 for street repairs without advertising for bids.

Examiner Cites School Board at Lancaster

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP)—A state examiner's report on the Lancaster school district made public today said the city's board of education "is in the position of a grocery concern" in selling foodstuffs from the school cafeteria stockroom for student organization banquets.

The report said "this practice does not meet with the approval of either the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices, or the department of education lunch program."

Everything in connection with the Lancaster school board, however, is in proper order, the report said.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

This is the grim tale of two cities—one, so mysterious and secretive an atomic center that we have only the British word that it exists "somewhere in the trackless Australian desert." The other city is your home town.

RIESEL

Deep in the heart of the great Aussie sand wastes, Royal Engineers have built an "A-Bomb City" for Britain's latest test of nuclear weapons. Just what these are no one knows, except for one clue.

That came from the austere, cautious and influential London Times which beseeched the British authorities not to explode a Cobalt (C) bomb in that desert because it "could poison the earth for years with radio-active cobalt particles, possibly endangering all humanity."

BUT WE DO KNOW that members of a specially-picked work force have been in the Australian desert for six months. So vital is their work, so tough is security that they have not even been permitted to inform their relatives of their whereabouts.

To narrow the security risk and minimize the supply problems, every man chosen for the operation had to be an expert in at least two or more jobs.

They work 10 hours a day, seven days a week. The British do not even tell them where they actually are and they know only that they are somewhere in a 10 000 square mile "prohibited area."

This includes the long range weapons establishment at Woomera on the Giber Plains. Woomera is the staging base for vast tonnage of special atomic supplies—all secret of course.

From Woomera, over terrain like the surface of a dead planet, the supplies move to the unknown base in special convoys equipped like frontier expeditions with water, stores, gas and camping facilities sufficient to cover twice the time and distance actually needed.

To maintain the utmost secrecy, special aircraft reconnoiter the area to make certain that the convoys are not followed. At the same time, all vehicles have to keep contact with special radio-equipped points in the desert to be sure that no one strays— deliberately or accidentally and no truck bogs down where it could be picked off.

SUPER SECRECY is needed. This force is preparing for the testing ofthe deadliest weapons of all civilized history, far beyond even the H-bomb. These are the weapons developed at the top secret Harwell Atomic Energy project and the lesser-known Atomic Weapons Research Station at Aldermaston, not too far from London.

And then, just last week these two mystery depots—Harwell and Aldermaston—were struck by the Electrical Workers Union of Britain.

Guess who runs and controls the union and leads the 200 men at Aldermaston and the technicians at Harwell, former research center for some of the Soviet's most effective spies?"

You guessed it—the Communists!

This Electrical Trades Union of the British Isles is led by Walter Stevens, described openly in England as the "Communist boss" of the union. He leads the men who prepare the laboratories there for dramatic experimentation, sometimes based on information received from our own Atomic Energy Commission.

Stevens, as union secretary, also leads the men who set up the apparatus at the military end of atomic research, which not infrequently is in touch with our own AEC Weapons Division. These are the weapons about to be tested in Australia.

TWO WEEKS AGO, Stevens' pro-Communist union, which is so described in the British newspapers, pulled a new type of walk-out—the "guerrilla strike". In fact, Stevens, sitting in his Hayes, Kent, union headquarters, officially called the stoppage "Operation Guerrilla".

All the union members kept their strike plans and orders secret. Stevens finally flashed his directive to them. Then there unrolled what could be termed a rehearsal for a political strike at a grim moment—if atomic war ever is declared. The men walked out of 10 sites—right in the midst of wage talks.

They quit at Harwell and Aldermaston, at an airport project, at a special Anglo-Iranian oil refinery on the Isle of Grain, at auto plants and at steel and tin plant installations, among others.

After the "Guerrilla Strike," they moved in with the creeping strike—at 15 additional sites. Each move, carefully planned, had just a small group of men quit such strategic posts that the vast installations were almost crippled. It should be noted that Communist unionists are thus organized in every Western land, including our own.

After this guerrilla, creeping rehearsal for "Der Tag," Sir William Penny, builder of Britain's atom bomb, and other officials began discussing new screening of workers at the British installations. Meanwhile it appears that the men in the Australian wastelands have been really working in a fishbowl—not a guarded desert.

Propaganda

By Inez Robb

Among life's more discouraging aspects are the superior propaganda techniques of the Iron Curtain countries. Our hucksters may earn more money but theirs never miss a trick.

INEZ ROBB

Less than three months after the execution of atom spies Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, the "Peace Council" of the Hungarian Communist party has published a novel "Ethel and Julius," on the terrible martyrdom of this innocent pair in the fell clutches of capitalist vengeance.

THE BOOK is a real washboard weeper, a true six-handkerchief epic, depicting "The Blind Hate" of American imperialism for all representatives of progressive thought and the tragedy of the innocent Ethel and Julius Rosenberg growing our of this hate."

I could kick our own propagandists for not latching onto this gimmick first. But it is not too late this is a clear call to all American publishers to get together and offer a $100,000 price for the best novel extolling the terrible life and hard time of innocent Lavrenti Beria and Vassily Stalin in the clutches of Malenkov.

All the American publishers have to do is follow the Hungarian outline and offer the 100 grand for a book describing "the blind hate of Soviet imperialism for all representatives of progressive thought, and the tragedy of the innocent Lavrenti and Vassily growing out of this hate."

WITH LAVRENTI in prison facing a purge trial and with old Joseph Stalin's favorite offspring reported in a slave labor camp in the Rubbian arctic, the American public ought to be told the truth about these high-spirited boys just as the Hungarian public is at last learning the truth about the Rosenbergs.

There are small - minded Americans who may object that it will be hard to make heroes out of either Beria or junior. But to them I say "shame!"

If the Hungarian novelists can make heroes out of the Rosenbergs, then local practitioners of fiction should have no trouble in making a silk purse out of a sow's ear or Vassily into little Lord Fauntleroy.

In fact, in the novel I am planning to enter in this American competition, that is just exactly what Vassily is: little Lord Fauntleroy. This kid in the velvet knee britches and the lace collars who has been taking the bows all these years under that title is nothing more or less than an imposter.

AN EVIL NURSE, inspired by the Soviet imperialistic spirit, switched the infants in their cradles, putting her own child in Vassily's place.

Anyone can write the story from this point: it just seems that Vassily grew up to be a lush and lecher. All the time he was a secret choir boy. He only pretended to be drunk and disorderly in order to help old ladies across the street.

When Vassily is finally exposed, it develops that his most cherished companion and guide is "The Boy Scout Manual" which he has worn next to his heart for years.

AS FOR BERIA: well, my novel will show that he got caught in a squeeze play. As every follower of detective fiction knows, the private eye is always on the side of right. As long-time head of the Soviet secret police, Beria was really secretly on the side of right when all the time his Communist masters thought he was far to the left.

Once Malenkov et al discovered that Beria was on the side of right and only purged people for their own good, the jig was up.

In my novel, "Lavrenti and Vassily," this duo is just a couple of lovable, high-spirited Katzenjammer Kids who wouldn't hurt a fly if they could kill it first. The publishers committee can save time by mailing the $100,000 prize money to me in a plain wrapper.

Robert Imbody Leaves

State Plowing Champ Prepares for Nationals

Robert Imbody of LaRue, state level land plowing champion of 1953, will compete Friday and Saturday in the National Plowing Contest near Augusta, Wis.

75,000 Expected

Imbody will participate in the matches held in conjunction with National Soil Conservation Day. The event has been billed as farming's biggest event of the year. Featured Saturday, besides the contests will be an address by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson.

About 75,000 persons are expected to witness the two-day event. One of 16 young ladies from Wisconsin competing for the title will be chosen "Miss Queen of the Furrow."

The level land contest, in which Imbody will compete, is scheduled to begin at 9:30 Saturday morning. The winners will be announced shortly after noon.

Imbody will compete with 13 other farmers from throughout the nation for the title of the nation's best plowman. He left Wednesday, taking his own plow. A tractor will be furnished by a Milwaukee firm, in the competition.

The winner of the event will have to know his plowing. A 16 page rule-book has been furnished each contestant. The degree to which the plowmen follow the rules will determine the winner.

First Year

This is Imbody's first year in competition. He went into the state contest last week as a novice and walked off with the top honors.

Ohio's contour plowing champion, R. C. "Buss" Cummins of Lewistown will compete against his brother, Martin, also of Lewistown. Martin won the national contour championship last year, and will be eligible to compete this year. His brother won the contour section of the matches last week.

The events are sponsored by the National Soil Conservation District Supervisors, University of Wisconsin College of Agriculture, Wisconsin Conservation Committee, and Eau Claire Radio Station WEAU.

Last year the national event was held at Kasson, Minn. Imbody has taken his wife and two children to the match. A full program of events for women will keep Mrs. Imbody busy.

Daughter Draws Dad's Name for Jury Duty

NEW BERN, N. C. (AP)—Six-year-old Joy Carpenter was brought into the Craven County Courthouse to draw names of citizens to serve on the grand jury.

Among others, she drew her father's name. He was required to leave his florist shop across the street from the courthouse and take up jury service.

So Joy and her mother are running the shop in his absence.

Another Extra! Your Grocer Gives You a Free Envelope . . . Mrs. Filbert Pays the Postage!

Get your beautiful towel FREE . . . To help you, your grocer will give you a free, postage-paid envelope in which to mail the two "spread-smoother" panels from your 2 pounds of Mrs. Filbert's delicious Margarine. Mrs. Filbert sends you your bright multi-striped kitchen towel postpaid!

"Folks can't believe I'm giving away this pretty kitchen towel!" says Mrs. Filbert. "But then they can't believe my Mrs. Filbert's Margarine can taste so sweet or spread so smooth until they try it, either! Now I want you to try it. So fresh tasting, so downright delicious that folks can't tell it from the most expensive spread. It's my own recipe, with plenty of sweet, fat-free milk, and 15,000 units of Vitamin A in every pound. And now my recipe makes it spread smoother and faster and easier than any other spread, margarine or not—even chilled cold—right off the ice!"

Offer Good on Golden Pound, too! If you buy 2 thrifty Golden Pounds instead of the Golden Quarters, send Mrs. Filbert BOTH panels on EACH pound that read "Spreads Smoother." In other words, send 4 panels in all, taken from 2 Golden Pound cartons. Get free envelope from your grocer! Mrs. Filbert pays the postage for you!

Buy your 2 pounds today! But hurry, please! Offer ends October 11, 1953. Sorry! We can't send towel for panels mailed after that date.

League of Women Voters Plans $1,000 Fund Drive

Plans for a finance drive scheduled to get under way Monday were discussed Wednesday morning at a meeting of the board of directors of the Marion League of Women Voters.

Board members, meeting at the home of the League's president, Mrs. Robert Axe of 202 S. Vine St., made plans for the third annual finance drive which has a goal of obtaining $1,000 for use in League work for the coming year.

Heads Committee

Chairman of the finance drive committee is Mrs. Jack Koeppen, and assisting her are Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Clifford Baker and Mrs. Dan Hale.

Attending the 9:30 a.m. breakfast Monday at the West Town Branch of the National City Bank will be finance campaign workers. At that time Mrs. Koeppen will brief the workers on the drive which is set up to last one week.

Approximately 200 letters have been mailed to previous contributors and others, reporting the dates of the drive and informing them that a League finance worker would call on them next week.

In its third year in Marion, the local League uses the money it obtains for sponsoring action in the community aimed at better-informed citizens. Examples of specific uses are the candidates' bulletin published in The Star by the League before elections. This full-page bulletin lists background information on candidates from a non-partisan point of view, and lists voting reminders and requirements.

Sponsors Candidates' Meeting

Along the same lines, the local League has sponsored candidates' meetings shortly before election time when candidates are invited to appear to discuss timely topics of community interest at an open meeting.

Another League-sponsored activity was a survey made in Marion last year pointing up the desire of Maronites for kindergartens as soon as they can become financially feasible.

Making arrangements for the breakfast are Mrs John W Freiz, Mrs Robert O. Stout, and Mrs. E. W. Warwick.

Insignia of the Navy's submarine service is a submarine flanked by two dolphins.

Motorist Makes Second Visit at Wyandot Jail

UPPER SANDUSKY — Bailed out Monday and back in the Wyandot County jail Wednesday was Paul L. Wright, 42, of Upper Sandusky.

Previously held for a week on a drunk and disorderly charge, he was freed Monday when friends raised the $119 fine and costs. Monday night at 10 p.m. he wrecked his car, a 1947 model, when he ran into the ditch three miles south of Sycamore, and knocked down a section of fence, an anchor post and a utility pole. Sheriff's deputies reported he swerved off the left side of the road, back across and off into the right hand ditch, going south, and totaled over 200 yards from the first swerve to the final pile up.

Wright was not seriously injured but is held on charges of leaving the scene of an accident without notifying property owners of damage.

OPPOSES RAZING BUILDING

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Eryle Jellison, Hamilton attorney, filed suit in common pleas court yesterday to halt the proposed razing of the one time home of former Gov. James E. Campbell. City officials have demanded the house, once a Hamilton show place, be torn down because of its dilapidated condition.

Troy Is Gifted With 'Midas Touch,' All Public Works Pay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"Modern Troy in Miami County seems to have the ancient King Midas touch," says State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

Rhodes noted Troy is engaged in a wider variety of public enterprises than most cities in the 10,000 population bracket, and "all that it touches turns to gold."

Troy operates its own 18-hole golf course, stadium, sports arena, cemetery and a public address system in addition to its parking meters, light plant, waterworks and sewage disposal plant.

Furthermore "it's making money on all of them," Rhodes said.

Card of Thanks
We want to thank everyone for their kindness in the death of our wife and daughter, Nina Bessie (Betty) Stover To the E.U.B. Church, lodges, and friends for the beautiful flowers. To the singers and Rev. L. E Ames Everyone that assisted us

I cannot say—and I will not say
That she is dead, she is just away'
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there,
And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There, as the love of Here.
Think of her still as the same, I say,
She is not dead . . . she is just away.

Prexy Cross Country Team Starts Drill

DO NOT DISTURB UNTIL SEPT. 30. Although he's asleep here, Bernard Hershkowitz of the Bronx won't be caught napping when the tickets go on sale at Yankee stadium for the World Series between the Bombers and the Brooklyn Dodgers Sept. 30. Bernie may have set some kind of record for being the first in line for the baseball classic, still two weeks away. He has a blanket, radio, cigarets and lots of patience.

Doby, Westlake Star

Feller Betters 1952 Mark With 7-2 Verdict Over A's

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bob Feller, who has been pitching for the Cleveland Indians since 1936, can consider his 1953 performance an improvement over last year

Feller, going the full nine innings and scattering eight hits, wrapped up his ninth victory last night as the Indians walloped Philadelphia's Athletics, 7-2. He has been beaten six times

Last night's triumph gave the second-place Indians a two-game edge over Chicago as the White Sox lost to the Washington Senators, 4-2.

Most of Feller's support came from Larry Doby and Wally Westlake who accounted for all the Tribe runs. Doby batted in three runs on a single and his 26th homer and forced in another by drawing a walk. Westlake knocked in one run with a triple and two more with a single. Luke Easter got three hits in four trips.

Both Philadelphia runs were scored in the eighth. Eddie Robinson singled and Elmer Valo walked Carmen Mauro followed with a single which scored Robinson, and then scored himself when Dale Mitchell made a wild throw.

Mike Garcia seeks his 18th victory for the Tribe tonight against Philadelphia's Harry Byrd, who is 10-19.

Iberia Scores Baseball Win Over Lexington

IBERIA—Iberia came from behind to defeat Lexington 15-4 for its second baseball victory of the season here Wednesday.

Walt Chambers held the losers to five hits while striking out 15 Lexington hopped on him for three runs in the first frame but didn't add another until the fifth as Iberia scored three runs in each of the second and third frames, four in each of the next two rounds and one in sixth.

Iberia pounded out their 14 hit attack against starter Jack Hoffner and three others, Dale Ford, Bob Stone and Ken Bigler. Chambers and Ed Stall each with three hits in four trips to the plate led the Iberia hitting Bill Roston had a single, double and triple and Dick Maidens, Iberia catcher, a double

Something of a rarity was recorded in the game also. The first 10 put outs on each side were strike outs.

Iberia's next game is with Edison here Sept. 22. Other games are at Lexington Sept. 23, at Pleasant Sept 25, with Radnor here Sept 28 and at Radnor Oct. 5

Gavilan 2½ Pounds Over Weight Limit

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Champion Kid Gavilan, still 2½ pounds over the weight limit for his world's welter title bout with Carmen Basilio tomorrow night, was ticketed for extra road and gymnasium work today.

The Cuban kid weighed 149½ yesterday after a tune-up for the 15-rounder. The challenger, just over 147 after his workout, was expected to drop a pound before weigh-in time tomorow noon.

Gavilan remained the favorite—at odds of more than 3 to 1—and there was little doubt that he would make the weight.

Runners Open State Title Defense Against Mansfield

Harding High School's state champion cross country team has started overtime drills for its opening meet next Thursday against Mansfield.

Coach Ken Somerlot greeted 42 boys at the opening practice session but only four lettermen are back. It marked the biggest turnout in six years of cross country activity at Harding.

Squad Drills Each Night.

Gone from the 1952 state championship team will be Frankie Green, Glenn Craft, Carlos Dennis and Bob Dutton. Somerlot had hoped for six veterans when the school term opened. However, he reported Bill Whittington did not return to school and Plex Booker has been unable to report for action. He is expected back before the season ends. The boys are holding drills each night at the Mar-O-Del Golf Course.

Letterman back to lead the pack are Seniors Dick Bollinger, Hugh Kinnamon, Gene Monroe and Allen Green. Somerlot has termed the four as "fine builders of team spirit." They serve as pacers for the squad and lend encouragement to the new men.

Captains Named

Kinnamon and Monroe were chosen by the team members as captains and Bollinger, last year's captain, was chosen as drillmaster for calisthenics.

Four other seniors are being counted on heavily by Somerlot. They are Max Kaelber, Dick Mull, Bud Metz and Gerald Foos. Juniors rapidly rounding into shape include Roger Fogle, Roger Ward, Dick Van Gordon and Delbert Huntsman while Tom Rutherford, Merald Thomas and Vance Dutton are leading the sophomore contingent. Ken reported he expected several others to be running with the leaders after another week of drills.

Track experience is showing at this early date, the Prexy mentor reported Jack Andrews, who was a 440-yard standout with last spring's track squad, is looking stronger each night and a newcomer, Sophomore Ben Dozier, is keeping pace.

Ten Meets Scheduled

Somerlot has scheduled 10 dual meets with the toughest teams in the state and every team on the slate will be pointing to defeat the state champs In addition to the state crown, the Prexies will be defending their Ohio AAU championship and their district laurels.

All home meets will be run at the Marion Country Club with the first one scheduled at 3:30 Thursday. Mansfield will be paced by Bill James, its state champion miler

Marion Barons Open Canadian Training Camp

The Marion Barons, hockey team, opened a combined training camp at Barrie, Ontario today with their parent club, the Cleveland Barons.

Coaches Ott Heller of Marion and Bun Cook of Cleveland are in charge of the training sessions. The teams are scheduled to go through rigid workouts twice daily for the next three weeks.

Players for the Marion Club will be farmed out from the Cleveland Barons from among those trying out who do not make the Cleveland team There are five affiliated teams from which Cleveland and Marion, will draw players.

Reports are that International Hockey League teams such as Cincinnati, Ft. Ft. Wayne, Troy and Toledo are beating the woods looking for new players and the pennant race will be tougher this year than last.

Johnstown, newest entry in the loop, was a pennant winner in the Eastern League the last three years and likely will be loaded with hockey talent again this year.

However, Heller, coach of the local Barons, is said to be confident that he will have a tough, colorful pennant contending club when the season opens at the Coliseum on Oct. 1. This will be an exhibition game with the Cleveland Barons starting at 3 p.m.

Fred Franco's 56-yard run against Columbia was the longest made by a Navy ball carrier in 1952. He had a net gain of 691 yards for the nine-game season.

Del Flanagan Far From Title Chance Despite Moody KO

CHICAGO (AP) — Del Flanagan gave a sensational rookie a brutal ring lesson last night, but the St. Paul cutie still is a long way from a shot at Kid Gavilan's welterweight crown.

Flanagan went roaring into seventh round action to knock out a touted Chicago kid, Alan Moody, a protege of veteran Manager Sam Pian who had won 26 of 27 pro starts.

The International Boxing Club today talked about a late October date at Detroit for Flanagan against Chuck Davey or Billy Graham, both of whom have seen better boxing days.

But Davey wants a return shot against unheralded Al Andrews who whipped TV's former darling soundly at Saginaw, Mich., Monday night

Then there are guys like Johnny Bratton, who has a November meeting promised with the winner of Friday night's Gavilan-Carmen Basilio bout, Johnny Saxton and Gil Turner for whom Flanagan must mark time.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs yesterday announced they have signed a working agreement with the Havana club of the Florida International League for 1954. The league is a Class B organization.

New York Kills Redlegs' Hopes

CINCINNATI (AP)—Any lingering hopes the Cincinnati Redlegs had of a fifth place finish in the National League are fading fast.

A 4-3 setback at the hands of the New York Giants yesterday dropped the Reds three games behind the fifth place New Yorkers.

The game was a real "quickie." It took only an hour and 39 minutes to play.

Dave Koslo of the Giants and Harry Perkowski of the Reds issued only one walk each

Koslo was master of the Redlegs until the eighth inning and by that time he had a 4-0 lead. Andy Seminick solved him for a home run in the eighth and in the ninth the Rhinelanders pushed two runners home and had the tying run on base when Seminick forced the runner for the game ending out.

Dodger Mound Crew Reaches Whiff Record

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Brooklyn's National League champion Dodgers last night continued writing new marks in the record books.

Preacher Roe and Joe Black combined to strike out six St. Louis Cardinals to give the Dodger pitchers a total of 779 for the season and a new National League mark. Brooklyn held the old mark of 773 last year.

Roy Campanella, resting up for the World Series, came off the bench in the ninth inning to hit a pinch hit homer and a new club record It was his 41st of the year, one more than Gil Hodges hit in 1951

Brooklyn lost the game, 5-4.

Veeck Given First OK for Browns' Move

CHICAGO (AP)—Bill Veeck has received his first OK to transfer the St. Louis Browns to another city—probably Baltimore.

A special American League committee said yesterday it will recommend the shift of the club to a full league meeting which will be held in a few weeks

The special committee was made up of Charles Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox; Walter (Spike) Briggs of the Detroit Tigers, and Will Harridge, president of the American League and Arthur Friedlund, acting for the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees respectively.

Veeck, president of the club, said nothing had occurred during yesterday's conference to rule out Baltimore as his preferred site.

"We made it quite clear we wish to go there," said Veeck.

Granny Hamner, shortstop of the Philadelphia Phillies, has a brother, Wes, who formerly played with the Phils and St Louis Browns.

Loss to Yanks Hurts Record

Browns' Bob Turley Called Brightest Prospect of Year

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

One of the brightest prospects who will leave St. Louis with the Browns at the end of this season is young Bob Turley, a strikeout artist fresh out of the army.

A big, husky 22-year-old right-hander, Turley turned up unheralded in mid-August and went to work immediately. In a month he's appeared in eight games. His 2-4 won and lost record is nothing to shout about, but some of his other figures are quite impressive.

In 47 innings he has struck out 48 men. He has pitched complete games in his last three starts, two of which ran 12 innings. In these three contests he allowed only 15 hits while striking out 30.

Pitching for a last place club is one of the toughest jobs in baseball. Turley, for example, has lost all four of his games by one run. In fact, all but one of the games in which he's appeared have been decided by one run.

He lost one of these last night to the champion New York Yankees 3-2. He gave up only four hits, all singles, but the Yanks combined three of these with two walks to get all of their runs in the sixth inning. Turley struck out eight and walked eight.

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Turley is a product of the Browns' farm system. The 6-2 210 pounder first hit the majors at the end of 1951 after being chosen the most valuable player in the Texas League while at San Antonio. He was beaten by the Chicago White Sox in his one start before beginning his army hitch.

Although he got beat, his Browns broke even with the Yankees in their after dark twin bill. They won the first game 5-3 against an assortment of second stringers. Ed Lopat, one of the few regulars who started, suffered his fourth loss and was forced from the game in the fourth inning when he was struck on the right foot by a line drive.

In other action yesterday Cleveland beat Philadelphia 7-2, Washington defeated Chicago 4-2 and Detroit thumped Boston 8-3 in the American League; St. Louis edged Brooklyn 5-4, Milwaukee whipped Pittsburgh 7-3, New York shaded Cincinnati 4-3 and Chicago defeated Philadelphia 7-4 in the National.

Bobby Feller scattered eight hits in winning his ninth game for the second place Indians at Philadelphia. Eddie Yost celebrated his "night" in Washington with a single and a double as the Senators beat Virgil Trucks who was trying to win his 20th game. Yost hasn't missed a Washington game since July 5, 1949.

The Tigers pounded four Boston pitchers for 18 hits including two by shortstop Harvey Kuenn who became the first rookie in either league to get 200 hits since Dick Wakefield did it with the Tigers in 1943.

In beating Brooklyn the Cardinals pinned the first loss on Preacher Roe since mid-May. The left-hander had won 10 straight.

Eddie Mathews hit his 46th home run and raised his runs batted in total to 131, bettering the previous club record for the Braves, Danny O'Connell extended his hitting streak through 25 games, a Pittsburgh club record first set by Charlie Grimm who now manages Milwaukee.

The Cubs' victory over Philadelphia was their 11th in their last 12 games.

Al Dark's home run with a man aboard provided the victory margin for the Giants over Cincinnati.

FORCED AT SECOND IN SOX VS. SOX. Dick Gernert, Boston Red Sox first baseman is forced at second base as he spills Nelson Fox, Chicago White Sox second baseman in the second inning of their game at Boston's Fenway Park. It all happened when Sammy White hit to Chico Carrasquel at shortstop who tossed to Fox. Fox's relay to first was in time to double White. Chicago won, 6 to 0.

Krieger Speaks

Veteran Official Explains Rules for Grid Campaign

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Confused over the new football rules?

Let a veteran football official, E. C. (Irish) Krieger, explain some of them for you.

Krieger has more than 30 years' experience in officiating behind him. Now a Columbus insurance man, he is an advisory member of the NCAA Grid Rules Committee. He edits the rules book annually, and generally is known as "Mr. Football Rules."

Most of the confusion this year stems from Ohio fans watching football played under three sets of rules—college, high school and professional. Some confusion also stems from the fact some rulings are not included in the rule book. They've been decided upon since the book went to press.

Krieger mentioned these changes:

In event of a fair catch the player must make a signal which is obvious, and which must be by extending his hand above his head and waving.

In college games, the clock will not be stopped after kicks—but it will be stopped in high school games to permit substitution.

In college games there shall be six segments, which govern substitutions. The first is the 15-minute first period; the second is 11 minutes in the second period and the third is the last four minutes in the second period. That method is repeated in the second half. Thus the segments are 15, 11 and 4 minutes, in that order.

In college games, a player suspended because of illegal equipment may not return to the game during that segment of the game.

A college player leaving the game may not return to the game during that segment. The clock shall stop at the 11-minute mark in the second and fourth periods (and if a play is going, it shall continue just as if a period were ending). Any scoring play on the last play of that segment shall be just as if it were at the end of a period—that is, the try-for-point is considered part of that 11-minute segment.

Interval between the 11 and 4-minutes segments shall be just long enough for teams to complete substitutions, and the new period of play does not start until the ball is put in play.

Colleges are permitted five times out each half, and high schools are allowed three. A player entering the game must do so before the ball is ready for play. (That is the moment the referee walks away from the ball.)

If a player enters after the ball is ready, there shall be a penalty for delay. In high schools, each team may substitute one man while the clock is running, but if two from the same team should come on the field there shall be a five-yard penalty for delay.

The college coaches agreed upon an "honor system" to assure illegal substitutions are not made. Krieger pointed out the system worked in 1938-39-40 when similar rules were in effect. Officials are not responsible to check substitutes to see if they are eligible to enter the game at that point.

The "hide-out" play is no longer permissible on a play following a substitution by either team.

If the kicking team first touches a kicked ball, this shall be treated as a violation and not as a foul as it has in the past. (A foul draws a penalty, a violation involves no walking off of yardage.)

Defensive pass interference once again results in an automatic first down for the passing team, no matter where the foul occurs.

Cage District Plans Change For Tourneys

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—The board of the Northeastern Ohio High School Athletic District meets at nearby Smithville Oct. 15 to decide whether to change its basketball tournament setup.

Last season district tournaments were held at Youngstown, Kent, Canton, Berea and Euclid. Youngstown, Kent and Canton, with 57 teams entered, drew five regional berths. Berea and Euclid, with 49 entries, got only two regional berths.

Under the new plan, sectional tournaments would be held at the five cities, or at other centrally located sites in their areas. Fourteen teams — three each from Youngstown, Kent, Euclid and Berea and two from Canton—then would advance to a district tournament for one-game stands. The seven victors would qualify for the regional meet.

Navy scored 147 points during the 1952 football season to its opponents' 75. It was the first time the Midshipmen had accomplished this since the 1945 campaign when they had 220 to 65 for the opposition.

Ticket Can Be Paid Off In Blood at Sandusky

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—Anyone who gets a ticket for parking Friday or Saturday can get out of paying the $1 fine—but it will still cost them.

City officials have agreed a parking ticket will be quashed if the holder gives a pint of blood when the Red Cross bloodmobile visits next Monday.

National Golf Tourney Field Cut to Sixteen

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—The common people took over the National Amateur Golf Championship today at the plush Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club.

The former champions—with one exception—the Walker cup stars and the rich men's sons joined the galleries as the field was reduced to 16 players for the second "double death" round that will bring the tournament down to the semi-final stage tonight.

Those still competing included:

Two public links players—the champion and runner-up.

Three college boys.

A Coast Guardsman and a Navy airman whose main duty is directing recreation.

A steel plant worker.

A covey of salesmen.

And an unemployed politican who doesn't have to worry about the shortage of votes.

The bracket of 16 wasn't entirely devoid of name players— or golfers financially able to hold up their end in the country club set. But it definitely was a tournament for the working men at this stage.

Among the survivors were 1950 champion Sam Urzetta of Rochester, N. Y.; three other members of the 1953 U. S. Walker Cup Team; John L. Morgan, the most successful of the British Walker Cuppers; and the Western Open Champion, Dale Morey of Indianapolis.

In addition to Urzetta are Walker Cuppers Bill Campbell, the former West Virginia legislator; Gene Littler, San Diego, Calif., Navy Station, and Jim Jackson of St. Louis.

These four survived the third day of the tournament which saw defending champion Jack Westland, ex-champions Charley Coe, Ted Bishop and former British amateur champion Harvie Ward, knocked out of the running.

Army Does Fast Job Processing Repatriates

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The seventh shipload of returning prisoners of war arrived yesterday as the transport Gen. William M. Black docked with 428 former captives of the Communists in Korea.

Few of the men tarried long in San Francisco. The Army processed them in near-record time—an average of one every 30 seconds—and released them to go home.

Of the 3,597 Americans freed at Panmunjom, nearly 2,800 have been sent home by plane or ship.

Toledo Sox Nipped 3-0 in AA Playoffs

By The Associated Press

Louisville evened up its American Association playoff series with Toledo at a victory apiece last night by blanking the Sox 3-0 behind Al Curtis' two-hit pitching.

At Kansas City, the Blues also squared their best-of-seven game series with Indianapolis at 1-1 by defeating the Indians, 4-1.

Curtis had a no-hitter at Toledo for 7 2-3 innings, retiring the first two batters in the eighth before Luis Marquez got the first Sox hit.

Southpaw Bob Wiesler set down the Indians with four hits, struck out nine and did not issue a walk in hurling the Blues to their first playoff victory.

AP ARTIST John A. Carlton sketches scene as William N. Oatis faced judges in Czech court on espionage charges.

Oatis

(Actually I was speaking of occasions when I had gone to him for news or background information on military matters in Czechoslovakia.)

I confessed I had gathered "espionage news" from my employes, other Czechs and diplomats, and gave details (I was talking about reports on military, economic and political subjects not published in Czechoslovakia. The police had sold me the idea that all this was espionage material.)

Heard Conversation

I said that the bartender at the Alcron Hotel in Prague once had interpreted for me the Czech conversation of two government chauffeurs talking at the other end of the bar, and that it had to do with the arrest of a public official.

(This was a fiction built up around a kernel of fact and transferred from the bartender's protocol to mine: In reality ONE chauffeur had told HIM about the official; the chauffeur had left the bar before I came and heard the report from the bartender.)

I testified that I got reports from a man using the name of Antonin Kratochvil and claiming to work in the prime minister's office.

(I knew he was an agent of the secret police but said nothing about this. I was playing their game in the hope of a short sentence.)

Hears the Verdict

That afternoon my three employes related they had helped me get unofficial reports

They also said they knew a Czech refugee, Vladimir Komarek, who sometimes returned illegally to his homeland. It was testified that he was a spy and that an accomplice of his had shot and killed a policeman.

(I had never met Komarek, and I insisted on this throughout the trial.)

Next day, 11 witnesses testified.

One said he had killed a policeman with a pistol Komarek gave him.

Another, Jan Stransky, told how he had given me a letter for his former employer, Russell Jones of the United Press, noting his suspicions that a Czech in that office was a police spy.

(I carried this letter to Jones, not knowing what was in it.)

Nearly all the other witnesses testified they had given unofficial information to me or my employes. Their testimony was both fact and fable—like mine and my employes'.

Prosecutor and defense counsel spoke. (My lawyer said I was guilty but there were alleviating circumstances.) And the next morning we four were all convicted. I got 10 years, Svoboda 20, Woydinek 18 and Muntz 16.

A big black sedan took me to Ruzyne Prison, five miles west of Prague. On the way, I noted a big car just ahead with a man and boy in it—Col. Atwood and his young son.

Gen. Robert S. Beightler, executive director of the turnpike commission, toos kthe opportunity yesterday to throw another punch in the running battle between the city and the commission. Elyria is fighting routing of the Northern Ohio Turnpike through a section of the city.

Beightler said Elyria's planning board asked for the documents but has no right to them He is furnishing them "as a courtesy," he said.

The commission gave Elyria copies of plans and contracts Sept 1, Beightler said.

A FORMER NEWSPAPERBOY HAS AN ADVANTAGE OVER OTHER YOUNG MEN

A former newspaperboy has an advantage over other young men in applying for a position because he has had early business training.

He has already learned through actual experience how to meet people and get along with them. He has gained practical sales and service experience; how to buy, sell, collect and make regular payments for his merchandise (newspapers); how to save part of his profits each week.

Yes, any boy who has had newspaper route experience has an advantage over other young men when they graduate; he has had the traditional American FIRST STEP in business training.

1758. JOHN PAUL JONES HOUSE, Portsmouth, N.H.

By The Associated Press

This two-story frame house, in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, is owned and operated by the Portsmouth Historical Society and is open, daily, to visitors. It has a gambrel roof, pierced by dormer windows with pointed pediments However, as an interesting variation, the middle dormer window has a segmental pediment to correspond with that over the door below. Captain Purcell built the house in 1758, and after the builder's death, his widow ran it as a boarding house. While superintending the construction of the ship "Ranger," on Badger's Island in 1777, John Paul Jones had his residence in Mrs. Purcell's boarding house. From this event, the old house later received its name There are interesting items of early Americana on exhibition here, among which is a particularly fine display of Sandwich glass.

Church Guild To Hold Election of Officers

Election of officers will be held at that meeting so they may attend the officers' training course to be held at First Presbyterian Church in Marion, Oct. 20.

Mrs. Dorothy Isett was in charge of a program, and Miss Pauline Weston presented an article on Indian missions Entertainment was directed by Mrs. Betty Merritt, with awards going to Mrs. Genny Seckel, Miss Pat Richie, and Mrs. Isett. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Lowell Cook, in serving. Announcement was made concerning financial projects, the selling of Christmas cards, now in progress, and holding of a bazaar at the Community House early in December.

LATE START

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass (UP) — Henry B. Hesse celebrated his 80th birthday by taking his first sword-fishing trip—and came back with a 300-pound swordfish.

Nebraska Editor Sees Blessing in Hurricane

HEBRON, Neb. (UP) — A tornado that wrecked and damaged many buildings here "should have happened sooner," according to the Hebron Journal-Register editor Will Long.

The twister damaged nearly every business building in town and destroyed some.

In an editorial Long said that some of the buildings should "have blown down or away 20 years ago."

"Hebron and its people have been in a rut for 20 years . . . we were jerked out of this dangerous state of mind violently the night of May 9 and the only thing wrong is that it should have happened sooner."

Long conceded that "this newspaper was . . . doing business in a place that should have ceased to exist soon after the Spanish-American War.

"That is all to be changed as soon as possible," he said. The Journal-Register will be in a new building and location before winter."

Woman Escapes Close Shave, Receives Haircut

OTTAWA, Kan. (UP) — A pocket-knife haircut, which wasn't a pretty job but proved effective, was given Mrs. Karl Johnson by her husband. When the family car went into a ditch, Mrs. Johnson's hair was caught under a wheel. Scratched and bruised, she could not get free—until Johnson used his knife to cut her tresses.

"It wasn't a neat trim, but under the circumstances it was a nice one," said Mrs. Johnson.

OUR FEATHERED FRIENDS

HOUSTON, Tex. (UP) — This ticket was strictly for the birds Officer A. J. Crow gave a speeding ticket to Robert L. Peacock, whose address was 2103 Eagle St.

Collecting Parking Ticket Fines Not Easy for Akronites

AKRON, O. (UP)—Ever think you had the perfect excuse that would get you off from a parking ticket charge? Don't try it here, because Art Wigley, police cashier and his assistant, Mrs. Dora Ritchey have faced everything—even the motorist who wasn't a bit angry.

"We get a lot of wild ones," Wigley said. "We have to get a policeman to cool 'em down."

Probably the man who was nearest right was the one who got a ticket for parking across a driveway—a driveway that happened to be his own, but "How could the officer know that?" Mrs. Ritchey said.

The chagrined motorist was caught two ways, because it turned out his driveway was too narrow for his car, so he had to park in the street. He vowed to have curbing put across it so it would cease — officially — to be a driveway.

Threats of political repercussions are common, as are the vague threats, such as "I'll get him some day. . ." The clerks tend to consider these as just so much steam being let off.

The motorist who wasn't angry? That was C. Roy Burket, who paid for the only ticket he had received in 39 years of driving.

"Yep, they done me dirty," he said cheerfully—and paid up.

FURIOUS FELINE

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP) — When the hood on the auto of Al Grimm's car was lifted by a gas station attendant a cat, sputtering and furious, leaped out.

Experts Say Traffic Signs Need Words With Added Punch

IOWA CITY, Ia (UP)—Traffic safety experts are considering putting an additional word on traffic signs.

They think it necessary to say "full stop" instead of just "stop" and "bad curve" instead of just "curve."

In fact, Bert Woodcock, an Iowa State Teachers College specialist in driver education, pointed out in an Iowa peace officers annual short course at the University of Iowa that many "no smoking" signs had to become "positively no smoking" to get results.

He said maybe the same thing is necessary in traffic work.

Woodcock said many drivers think that by simply slowing down at a stop sign and sweeping each direction with their eyes they are playing safe.

"Our eyes don't have a complete semi-circular field of vision," he said. "Like cameras, our eyes focus on each of a series of pictures with gaps in between, or with a fast twist of the head, we see only one long, blurred field of images."

TOUCH BACKFIRES

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UP)—Walter J Ledderhose, 50, went to jail for 120 days because police said he tried to "bum" two cents. Picked as a target for his "touch" were two men on a street corner who turned out to be detectives. They said Ledderhose had eight cents in his pocket and wanted to build his pile to 10 cents

Lean Beef Cuts Help the Day's Budget

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Lean beef is the order of the day. Range cattle are coming to market, and thrifty house-wives can take advantage of the lean cuts that are more reasonably priced than fat-marbled steaks and roasts

No one will mind eating lean beef if it's prepared, as in the recipe below, with a delicious sauce and small white onions. When our taste-testers sampled this dish, two of them said it was delightfully like sauerbraten in flavor.

What to serve with this Braised Beef and White Onions? Mashed potatoes are a good choice, so are green peppers cut into eighths and cooked in boiling water only until they are tender-crisp. (A pound of the peppers will give ample portions for four.) Or instead of the peppers, serve snap beans cooked whole and doused with melted butter or margarine, salt and plenty of freshly-ground pepper.

Chances are that with lean beef plentiful, you'll be serving lots of hamburgers. But please don't keep offering them the same old way. Give your family a surprise, be inventive We'll start you off by suggesting that you divide a pound of chopped beef into four portions, make each portion into a ball; now poke your good strong forefinger down into the center of each. Put finely chopped onion mixed with a little chili sauce, crumbled crisply-cooked bacon, Roquefort cheese or what-have-you down into these holes; mold the meat over the filling into pleasantly rounded patties. Panfry or broil, as you will

RICH BROWN lean beef chunks with white onions and a delightful sauce—that's eating.

BRAISED BEEF WITH WHITE ONIONS

Ingredients: 1½ pounds round steak, 1½ teaspoons kitchen bouquet, 3 tablespoons fat, 1 pound small white onions, 1½ teaspoons salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ⅛ teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, 1 cup apple juice, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, ¼ cup cold water.

Method: Cut meat into 1-inch cubes; place in mixing bowl Sprinkle with kitchen bouquet, stir until pieces of meat are evenly coated. Melt fat in Dutch oven. Add meat and peeled onions. Cook about 10 minutes, stirring often. Add salt, pepper, nutmeg, parsley and apple juice. Stir, cover and bring to boil. Cook slowly until onions are barely tender, about 30 minutes. Blend cornstarch with water until smooth; add to meat. Stir constantly until gravy thickens. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Rev. Ritchie came here as an exchange pastor from his McDonald Road Church of Scotland in Edinburgh.

"I find American morals are very high," he said, "but it took me a while to get used to the appalling nakedness of the people."

"It's startling to see women so scantily attired," he added, "but maybe it's only because of the climate."

Few Converts Won in Korea By Communists

Proportion of Allied Prisoners Who Fell For Red Line Small

MUNSAN, Korea (UP) — Communist attempts to indoctrinate American and Allied prisoners of war were, by and large, a miserable failure

That was the most rewarding and reassuring disclosure to come out of the exchange of prisoners in Korea

One of the most heart-warming experiences was to sit here day after day, and listen to the prisoners just released from months or years of Communist captivity

Some of them wavered during the long harrowing months in a Communist stockade and a few fell by the wayside

But the great bulk came through unchanged

Hadn't Been Around

There is no doubt that the Communists set great store on their ability to convert Allied prisoners to Marxism And there is also no doubt that, before the prisoner exchange started, American officers here were seriously apprehensive about the degree of success the Communists might have had

Prisoners themselves said they were surprised at the small number of men who accepted the Red indoctrination Those who did were very young "ignorant" and "weak-minded," they added

"They just hadn't been around enough," said one New Yorker

A number of prisoners mentioned that the converts come from 'good homes" or that their parents were "highly respectable"

Negroes Stood Firm

The Communists evidently thought Negro prisoners would be a push-over and regaled them day after day with stories of racial oppresion in the United States and complete equality behind the "iron curtain" But almost to a man the Negroes not only rejected Communist teaching but were among the most militant of the 'reactionaries"

Sometimes the "reactionaries" conducted their own counter-propaganda — quiet, persuasive talks with those "progressives" who were wavering or already gone astray Other times they resorted to "fist work"

'We tried to make men out of rats' was the way one "reactionary" put it.

JUST JEALOUS

DELANO Calif (UP) — Ray Hamilton reported he discovered a large family of hogs inspecting the garbage disposal unit in the kitchen of his nearly completed house here Judging from their loud snorts and grunts they held the device in considerable disdain, he said

Jesuit Priest Studies Allergy

Research Produces Results on 'Allergens'

SPOKANE Wash (UP)—A patient, thorough Jesuit priest, who has worked the past three years in his basement laboratory, may have established a basis for revolutionizing the treatment of sinus irritations

He is the Rev Arthur L McNeil, S J, head of the chemistry department at Gonzaga University

Regardless of your allergy — whether it's animal hairs strawberries or hay fever—Father McNeil's work may be the beginning of new hope Briefly, he has devised a new method for separating and identifying "allergens" which formerly have been inseparable

Father McNeil makes no promises, but he hopes his classification of nitrogen protein molecules is the beginning of something

Scientists long have known that such 'allergens" are the cause of hay fever, but they have been forced to treat patients for several different proteins

In other words one of the big problems has been to isolate and classify the 'allergens"

"The allergens" said Father McNeil, "have been difficult to separate because the chemical contents of the nitrogeneous proteins are almost identical"

He conceived a process for placing the proteins in an electrical field and causing them to migrate toward opposing poles in accordance with the power of their respective electrical charges

A long thin strip of blotting paper is immersed at opposite ends of the fields in electrodes After the separation takes place, the paper is developed like photographic film to bring out the proteins

Sea otters were once slaughtered into near-extinction, as many as 50 000 being killed in a single year

Juveniles Are Given Chance To Start Over

'Corrective' Ranch In California Run For Delinquents

BANNING, Calif (UP) —A man with no formal education who runs a "corrective" ranch for delinquent boys has been credited with putting some 300 of them back on the right track in the past six years.

Twin Pines Ranch at the end of a three-mile dirt road near scenic Mt. San Jacinto is Riverside County's answer of a wholesome environment for boys who never had such at home

The 320-acre ranch, entered through a gate on which is written, "Howdy, Pahdner'" is run by a former interior-decorator, six-foot-two Ralph Johnson. It has no bars, no guards Just a few rules—and understanding

Johnson, 59, greets a newcomer at the ranch of some 50 boys with a surrey ride during which they "talk" The two-horse team goes over the peaceful, tree-lined mountain road

"The boy loses any anxieties he may have had," Johnson explained "By the time we get to the chow hall he is at ease'

Johnson and his staff of 13 have no discipline problem

"When one steps out of line, the boys' pride in their ranch makes them ostracize him" he said "His antisocial tendencies end"

Many buildings on the ranch planned first in 1945 by the county probation department, were built by boys who now are men many of them in the armed forces. One, a burglar at 17, was appointed to Annapolis last year

The boys, who enter figuring the end is near but leave teary-eyed, stay an average of 11 months and leave when Johnson feels they are ready. They all are first offenders, many of them from "good" homes Training in trades is offered and all the boys work on crops at the ranch Their work keeps costs down to $90,000 yearly.

But half the day is devoted to school Regular recreation activities include football, basketball and baseball games in a school league, plus swimming and horseback riding.

The boys—many of them narcotics cases, gang brawlers and habitual truants—receive close attention from Johnson's wife She has hundreds of letters from boys formerly at the ranch When she had arthritis and was confined to bed they took care of her in shifts

In other fields, the boys take turns leading the group in prayers during non-sectarian services And on the gay side, a girls' choir comes to the ranch for dances from time to time

The six-year record is good While four boys have had to be returned to the California Youth Authority as incorrigible and 23 have run away, 82 per cent of the ranch graduates have "gone straight"

As superintendent of the ranch, Johnson, who believes boys are basically good, has a free hand in its operation He accepted the job only on this condition.

Premier's Hand Strengthened

New Soviet Secretary Malenkov's Aide

The writer of this article left Moscow in June after serving 11 years as an AP correspondent there

By EDDY GILMORE

The selection of Nikita Khrushchev as first secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist party strengthens the hand of Premier Georgi M. Malenkov. It could be the forerunner of vast and important changes in the agricultural policy in Russia.

Khrushchev has one of the hardest names to spell in the Soviet Union but is said to be one of the easier going comrades to the top communist brass. He is generally known as Malenkov's brother-in-law.

It was also Khrushchev, this 59-year-old son of a Kursk miner, who got kicked in his pants two years ago for suggesting the time was ripe for "Agro towns" in Soviet agriculture.

Some years ago—perhaps 15 or 20—Malenkov was reported to have married Khrushchev's sister, a comely woman now in her 40's who has many friends in Russia's world of arts, particularly the opera and ballet.

Khrushchev long ago interested himself in the collective farm system—or else was assigned the job of being interested in it. This may be more logical, for he never was a farmer or had much to do with them.

When he was party boss of the Soviet Union's giant southern republic of Ukraine, agriculture was naturally the subject which concerned him mightily, for the Ukraine is the country's greatest producer of wheat and is known as Russia's bread basket.

It was after he got to Moscow four years ago that he received the kick in his commissarial trousers for the suggested innovation in agriculture that backfired.

It began this way:

The Moscow press came out one morning saying the small individual collective farmer was not the solution to the Soviet Union's agricultural problem; that the real thing of the future was big collective farms and the way to bring this about was to consolidate the small farms and small farmers into new and bigger collective farms.

This new theory generated a collective peasant grumble heard from the black earth of Kursk to the tundra of Siberia, for the Russian peasant—one of the most conresents the collective farm system itself.

To the peasant, the suggestion for the consolidation of small collective farms into big collective farms meant he was going to have to work harder for the government, endure tighter control over his life and work by the state, and see an opening stroke in favor of something he always had feared—transformation of all collective farms into state farms.

He definitely did not like the way things were going.

There are two kinds of farms in Russia—collective farms and state farms. The collective farm is a grouping of peasants who till a certain amount of land and raise a certain number of cattle, sheep, hogs, chickens, etc., collectively. The government sets a production target for them to meet and when they do this what is left over belongs to them. They also have private plots of land, privately owned cows, sheep and chickens and what they earn from these is theirs.

The state farm, on the other hand, is a big tract of land owned and operated by the state. Farm Laborers work for the state for salary and bonuses.

But this didn't make the peasant collective farmer so resentful as Khrushchev's suggestion of "agro towns."

Roughly, an Agro town is an agricultural city. But the peasant knew it wouldn't be much of a city and it wouldn't be much "agro" for him.

He saw himself, his family and friends being moved out of their present huts with their adjoining plots of more or less private ground into some barracks room; and he would live in crowded conditions, huddled together like the Russian of the cities.

He didn't like this and said so.

Next thing, the papers came out with a denunciation of the Agro town idea and Tovarich Khrushchev was the goat.

It is difficult to say, however, if the Agro town really was Khrushchev's own idea. The Agro town may have been a Stalin trial balloon attributed to Khrushchev However, it would seem more natural that it was Nikita Khrushchev's idea and when it met such stiff opposition he had to face the criticism He faced it, but beyond the fact he was silent for a little while it didn't seem to faze him.

He bounced back and now he is first secretary of the Central Committee According to the Central Committee announcement, he is still involved in agriculture or the agricultural end of Soviet communism.

I believe Malenkov has just as strong control as ever over the secretariat of the Communist party. He had many years to do this and he placed his men in key positions over the years. They still are there and now he's got his brother-in-law in the top spot

You don't have to hold the title in the Soviet Union to run the department For years, Stalin had no government title and there was not much doubt about who was running the country

Malenkov holds the primest job in the party presidium, which means he is top man in the now tightly knit Politburo It still is the Politburo, no matter what they call it—a small group of Communists who control the party.

The parade will be headed by the Bucyrus City Band, which is being brought together again for the event after having been disbanded for about two years.

Floats thus far have been entered by the American Legion, Kiwanis Club, Elks, several churches, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled Veterans, 37th Infantry Division Association, American Legion and VFW auxiliaries, International Club, Knights of Columbus, Civil Air Patrol, Crawford County Children's Home, Mt. Zion Future Farmers of America, four Granges and antique fire-fighting equipment belonging to the Bucyrus fire department.

Man Finds Hotel Rate To Be Much Cheaper

WOONSOCKET, R. I. (UP) — The most fashionable hotels would not have charged Phillipe Paranteau of Woonsocket for a night's lodging what it almost cost him to take a nap on a doorstep.

Carlis Gasson, 50, of Providence pleaded guilty to a larceny charge, although he said he couldn't remember taking the sleeping Paranteau's wallet containing $100. Gascon was placed on a year's probation and ordered to make restitution.

FAMILY CEREMONIES

WATERVILLE, Kan. (UP)—Beulah Marie Whitesell of Irving became the wife of Elton T. Spunaugle of Bigelow in a ceremony conducted by the Rev. Martin Ashley. Immediately afterward, the grandparents of the young couple, Mrs. Mae Whitesell and Paul Spunaugle were married by the Rev. Ashley.

Skeleton Believed From Biblical Age

WHEATON, Ill (AP) — The skeleton of a child who lived about the time of Joseph near Dothan, Palestine, where Joseph was sold into slavery, has been brought here.

Dr. Joseph P. Free, Wheaton College archeologist, found the skeleton during a recent expedition with his wife and their two children.

"The implements found in the earth near the skeleton indicates that the skeleton belonged to the same period as Joseph," he said.

"They were of the period classed as Middle Bronze, between 2,000 and 1600 B. C."

The Bible says Joseph's brothers sold him as a slave at Dothan.

Mrs. Free helped her husband unearth the skeleton which was buried under the corner of a wall.

Free said the skeleton's location indicated that the child may have been the victim of a "foundation sacrifice" which he said, is mentioned in the Bible.

He quoted I Kings 16:

"In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho; he laid its foundation at the cost of Abiram, his first born, and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub. . . ."

Tiny vessels of food were buried with the skeleton. Free said. They indicated that the ancients believed in life after death.

Musk oxen have provided a vital source of food for Arctic explorers and twice saved the life of Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary, North Pole discoverer, says the National Geographic Society. Brought to bay by dogs, the big animals are easily taken.

Best-known of all American steam locomotives was probably the New York Central's old "No. 999," says the National Geographic Society. It was the first 100-mile-an-hour engine and held the world's speed record for more than 12 years, after covering a mile in 32 seconds (112.5 miles per hour) near Batavia, New York, on May 10, 1893.

The Connecticut Lakes region at the northern tip of New Hampshire was independent from 1832 to 1835, the National Geographic Society recalls. Pioneers named their country the Indian Stream Republic, they spurned allegiance either to the United States or Canada until New Hampshire militia forced them to acknowledge state sovereignty.

There are four "United States" in the Western Hemisphere—the United States of (North) America, the United Mexican States, the United States of Brazil, and the United States of Venezuela.
